Same Base Where 27 Killed In Blast

SAIGON (UPI)—Nine Americans were killed today when two U.S. Army helicopters collided and crashed in flames at the Bien Hoa base 20 miles north of Saigon.

In combat near another air base a U.S. Marine was shot and killed.

A U.S. military spokesman said eight of the 11 Americans aboard the two helicopters were killed instantly when the craft plunged to the ground from an altitude of about 100 feet at the southern end of the runway.

Two survivors were reported in serious condition.

The Marine was killed near Chu, site of a new air base being built by Navy Seabees 330 miles north of Sailgon. Ten other Marines were wounded, two of them seriously, in the clash with the Communist guerrillas.

In the air war, U.S. and Vietnamese planes battered radar installations, ground and sea transportation, bridges, roads military barracks and other targets in North Viet Nam today.

The Bien Hoa base, 20 miles north of Saigon, is on the fringes of Communist-controlled territory but there was no indication that today's collision involved any Viet Cong action.

On May 16—a Sunday—a series of thunderous explosions ripped the big base, killing the 27 Americans and destroying 10 B57 jet bombers worth $1.2 million each.

The flightline blast was blamed on an improperly set fuse in a bomb which had been loaded aboard one of the supersonic planes just prior to a combat mission.

The hard luck installation was the target of a murderous Viet Cong mortar attack last Nov. 1. That assault killed five Americans and wounded 76 others. Five B57s were destroyed.

Today's Leatherneck battle near Chu Lai involved troops of the 2nd Battalion, 4th Marines. A Marine spokesman said six guerrillas were killed.

Quit Or Be Fired, Balmer Tells Park Supt. Penders

BERT A. BALMER
'Resign or be fired'

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Resignation of Mill Valley Park Supt. Joseph F. Penders was requested yesterday by city mgr. Bert A. Balmer with the threat that, if it is not forthcoming by July 1, Penders will be fired.

Penders reported the ultimatum to the Independent-Journal today.

"I'm not resigning," he declared.

Balmer was not in his office this morning and could not be reached for comment.

Wednesday night at a city council budget meeting, Penders asked the council to permit him to remain at his present salary.

NEW POSITION

The council approved a new position of park and recreation director, as recommended by Balmer. But it did not agree with Balmer's proposal that Penders lose his present title and take the job of park foreman with a $2,280 pay cut to $6,240 per year.

Penders said he was called to a staff meeting at 10 a.m. yesterday in Balmer's second floor office in city hall. Also attending were police chief Dan Terzich, fire chief Leslie Armager, planning director Harvey E. Bragdon and Harold E. Soule, administrative assistant. Ross J. Benson, head of public works, was not present.

'VIOLATES RULE'

"Balmer said I had violated his orders and that no department head at any time should go before the council unless it had been discussed and cleared first with him," Penders reported.

" He said I put a knife in his back and had cut my own throat.

"I said I did not put a knife in his back and that I felt I had the right to go before council, especially when it affected one of my men and my salary.

"Then he said that if I don't submit a resignation by July 1, he would fire me.

"When I talked back to him, he picked up an ash tray and said he wanted to bounce this

Communications Lack Charged At College

By ROBERT L. COPPOCK

Communications between faculty and administration at College of Marin have broken down, the president of the academic senate told the Marin Junior College District Board last night.

The academic senate had, days before, sent special delivery letters to all board members asking to be heard on a proposal of College President Stephen E. Epler to add two new top positions to the administration staff.

When Edwin L. Braun, chemistry instructor and academic senate president, started to speak on the subject last night, trustee Kent O. Seymour said he would rather the teachers' group "use regular channels" —the administration—to report to the board.

Braun objected that he did not want non-teaching representing the interests of teachers beoref the board.

"The channels have broken down, anyway," he said

Braun said the proposed administrative change had been sent to the board for action without being referred to any faculty group or even to the president's council.

Epler replied he had acted on a specific board order thtat he make a proposal on administration reorganization. He said if the board wanted him to refer the matter to the academic senate, he wanted instructions to that effect.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy said the faculty need not worry,

Delinquent Taxes Hit High Level

Delinquency in payment of county taxes has hit the highest level in five years and given Marin County a budget deficiency of $67,000, county auditor-controller Michael Mitchell announced today.

He said 5.34 per cent of the total $7,910,000 tax bill was delinquent as of the April 10 deadline. The current county budget was set up on an anticipated 4.5 per cent delinquency as of April 10.

Mitchell blamed the increase on an increased amount of land being held by speculators. He explained speculators often are financed in such a way that they can afford to accept the 6 per cent penalty on delinquent taxes rather than seek new financing to pay the taxes.

The county is not in serious financial difficulty because of the high delinquency rate, because the $67,000 deficiency can be made up from other sources of revenue, principally sales tax, Mitchell said.

The highest delinquency was in Reed School District, 8.35 per cent, Mitchell said. Bolinas-Stinson School District had delinquency of 7.76 per cent, and Lagunitas School District, 7.79 per cent.

However, Laguna, Lincoln and

High School Budget Calls For Seven-Cent Tax Hike

Tentative budget of San Rafaeel High School District adopted Wednesday by the board of education, calls for a tax hike of seven cents per $100 assessed valuation to provide $90,000 for remodeling the main building at San Rafael High School.

In a memorandum to the board, Schools Supt. Bert C. Corona said the tax hike, which would bring the basic tax rate to its maximum $1.75, is needed to continue with the district building program set up in late 1962.

Part of the increase would be canceled out by a drop of one and onee-half cents in the levy for bond redemption, however, Supt. Bert C. Corona said yesterday.

He predicted the tax rate, including override but aside from bond redemption, would total $1.90 to finance the proposed three and one-half million dollar budget. Bond repayment,

U.S. Temperatures

NEW YORK (UPI) — The highest temperature reported to the U. S. Weather Bureau yesterday, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, was 102 degrees at Presidio, Tex. The lowest reported this morning was 26 at Devils Lake, N. D.

Space Shot Off

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A planned attempt to rocket two U. S. astronauts on a record four-day flight to conduct America's first "walk in space" June 3 has been postponed, it was learned today. The launching of rookie astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White may be delayed as much as one week — to about June 10, informed sources said.

Death Penalty Backed

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — The British Prison Officers Association unanimously adopted a resolution yesterday favoring retention of the death penalty in cases where prison guards are killed.

Latin, Yank Peacekeepers Would Move In

WASHINGTON (UPI) —If all goes relatively smoothly in the Dominican Republic during the next few weeks, the United States may withdraw all or most of the 21,000 Marines and Army paratroopers there.

They would be replaced by an Army infantry brigade of about 4,000 men that eventually could be incorporated into an inter - American peacekeeping force of perhaps 6,000 men.

U.S. officials foresee the possibility that such a force, which would include 2,000 Latin American troops, may be needed in the troubled Caribbean island nation for months to come.

TWO REASONS

There would be two reasons for the change in American forces in the Dominican Republic:

The withdrawal of the Marines and paratroopers would permit them to return to their regular role of "standby forces," available for use in anywhere in the world.

The Marine and the paratrooper units are designed and trained primarily for combat and there is some feeling that they would not be the best suited for the more passive, long-term peacekeeping role.

At last count there were 637 Latin American troops in the Dominican Republic as part of the Organization of American States (OAS) force. This weekend Brazil is expected to send in another 1,000. At about the same time the United States is expected to have withdrawn an equivalent 1,600 of its troops.

CIVIL WAR

U.S. sources believe the total peacekeeping force probably could be cut to about 6,000 if an interim government is established in the Dominican Republic during the next several weeks and if there is not major renewal of the civil war.

The Latin American countries which so far have army or national police troops in the Dominican Republic are: Brabil, 204; Costa Rica, 21; El Salvador, 3; Honduras, 250, and Nicaragua, 159.

U.S. and Latin American troops in Santo Domingo are reported to be serving as a "fire break" between the rival forces of rebel chief Col. Francisco Caamano Deno and junta leader Maj. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera. The international safety zone and supply corridor which they hold is not quite complete, however, since some Imbert troops are at the national palace on the rebel side of the line.

Administration sources believe that much more work will be needed to achieve agreement on the makeup of any broadly based coalition government for the Dominican Republic.

Not only are the Caamano and Imbert camps at odds with each other, but there are political subdivisions within each. U.S. officials there are some persons on each side who would prefer to see no settlement if they cannot have their own way.

Israel Commandos Hit Arab Towns Over Sabotage Raid

TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI)—Israeli commandos raided three Jordanian towns last night in a bold warning to Arab sabotage squads to halt their attacks on Israeli border settlements, it was announced today.

The military action produced the makings of a new crisis in the Middle East.

The commandos crossed the River Jordan and destroyed an "el fatah" (sabotage squad base) at Shuneh, blew up a large fuel dump in Kalkilya and destroyed a flour mill and an ice factory at Jenin, an Israeli military spokesman said.

All three towns were described as bases from which Arab raiding parties allegedly crossed the border and attacked Israeli communities earlier this week.

The spokesman said neither Israel nor Jordan suffered any casualties as a direct result of last night's raids into Jordan. But it was announced that seven members of one Israeli raiding party were injured slightly when a hand grenade exploded by accident while the attackers were returning to Israeli territory.

In Amman, a Jordanian military spokesman said four persons were killed and four others wounded during the atacks on the Jordanian border towns.

"Jordan will retaliate ruthlessly and will be supported by all Arabs if Israel commits any actions like last night's," he warned. The spokesman said Jordanian border patrols drove the attacking Israelis back into their own territory.

The spokesman said Jordan was in continuous contact with the unified Arab command in Cairo and warned, "all necessary measures are being taken to teach the Israelis the hardest lesson whenever they attack."

GOP Backs Lindsay In New York Race

NEW YORK (UPI) — Rep. John V. Lindsay went forth today with the official blessings of the Republican party to attempt to unseat Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

More than 1,200 Republican county committeemen representing all five New York City boroughs last night by acclamation nominated Lindsay as the party's choice to oppose Wagner's bid for an unprecedented fourth term.

Algeria-Cuba Pact

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — Algeria and Cuba signed a medical agreement here yesterday under which Cuba will send 50 doctors and nurses to Algeria. A team of 63 Soviet doctors scheduled to arrive here today under a similar agreement with Russia.

Two Who Escaped Quentin Apprehended In Modesto

Two San Quentin prisoners, who walked away from the ranch outside the prison walls last Saturday night, were apprehended yesterday afternoon in Modesto.

The escapees, Thomas Boyd Turner, 26, of Los Angeles County, and William Clark Mason, 29, of Stanislaus County, were arrested by Modesto police without incident, according to Associate Warden Robert C. Loriano at San Quentin.

The two men were caught riding in an automobile that allegedly belonged to Mason's brother, he said. They were held in Modesto, pending return to the prison.

Turner was serving five years to life for first degree robbery and conspiracy, and Mason, six months to 14 years for forgery on two counts and parole violation.

Mason had been at San Quentin since last December and Turner since September, 1962.

Complaint Aide Measure Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An advocate assisting persons looking with complaints about state government would be established under a proposal approved by the Assembly Government Organization Committee.

The measure by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, would create the office of citizens' representative, or "ombudsman."

The term "ombudsman" comes from a similar office already in existence in Sweden. The bill went to the Ways and Means Committee yesterday.

MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT, 456-3333: CLOSED MONDAY, MAY 31; OPEN TUESDAY NIGHT 'TILL 9

next to Taylor's land.

"It's not your property, it's ours," Knill answered.

Mrs. Knill moved forward to push Taylor. Her husband grabbed her. "Calm down," he said.

Knill today established a different attack. He went to Marin Superior Court and obtained from Judge Thomas F. Keating an order for Taylor and his wife, Isabelle D., to show cause at 2 p.m. next Tuesday why they should not be held in contempt of court for alleged violation of deed restrictions.

The hearing will be before Judge Keating.

Yesterday's row began in mid-afternoon when Taylor put a chain around a 50-foot pine tree and pulled it down with a bulldozer.

Mrs. Knill, who had been keeping vigil from her newly constructed house above the Taylor property, heard the "buzz saws."

She ran down and sat on the tree, defying Taylor to continue tree cutting to clear the way for his equipment to begin removing trees which the Knills contend are on their property. Taylor says it's his property, just in front of the Knill house.

"I told him if he sawed up the tree, he'd have to saw me up," Mrs. Knill said. "It's the first sit-in demonstration I've ever been in."

As Mrs. Knill talked to reporters, the sound of the buzz saws was heard and the tree began to be cut up. Mrs. Knill glared impotently.

The Knill home was just completed at 421 East Strawberry Drive. The young couple moved in three weeks ago. They estimated the lot at two-thirds of an acre, and said lot and home were worth $80,000.

The Knills and other residents of Strawberry instigated a zoning change which raised minimum lot size of the area from 7,500 to 20,000 square feet.

County planning commission agreed. The county board of supervisors passed an ordinance amendment embodying the larger lot size.

Taylor applied for and received a grading permit from the county public works department about six weeks ago.

He proceeded to make "glorious cuts and fills, vertical cuts and loose fills," said Donald R. Frost, county director of public works.

Public works inspectors asked Taylor for more specific plans for the grading. Taylor refused them, Frost said.

It was temporarily settled Monday in Marin Superior Court when both sides agreed to stipulations. Under them, the grading permit is revoked and Taylor may not fill more than three feet deep nor cut more than six feet deep on his lots without a new permit.

The Knills and another neighbor, Bernard Osher, whose lot also abuts on Taylor's parcels, also have filed suit to require Taylor to be bound by lot size restrictions and alleged deed restrictions.

David Van Pelt of the county planning department reported Taylor is requesting subdivision of his property which Van Pelt described as "gerrymandering." The request has not reached the planning commission yet.

Today's court order to show cause was granted on the signed declaration of the Knills citing an April 26 preliminary injunction order by Judge Keating directed Taylor and other defendants to "act in accordance with certain private deed restrictions contained in a declaration of Marin Title Guarantee Co." and recorded June 16, 1959.

The subdivision of 47 lots was owned by Samuel R. Neider, who conveyed it to Marin Title on Oct. 7, 1958, "presumably" to facilitate transfer of title to individual lots on sale, according to the Knills' declaration.

They stated that after Neider's death, the remaining lots were sold April 9, 1963, to Milland Development Co. and on last Jan. 8 the still unsold lots were purchased by the Taylors

The Knills also allege the Taylors have excavated and removed trees on three lots without approval of an architectural committee, as provided for in deed restrictions.

Burglars Loot Pastor's Study

Irreverent burglars yesterday looted the unlocked pastor's study of Peace Lutheran Church in Tamalpais Valley of office machines and an $8 petty cash fund, sheriff's officers reported today.

Rev. Harold G. Johnson told deputies entry was apparently through an unlocked front door of the church on Tennessee Valley Road. He said a typewriter, dictaphone, amplifier and the cash were missing.

Walter Diekmann of Diekmann's General Store, Tomales, told deputies someone entered the store last week and took a .22-caliber rifle, a gun telescope, and a B-B pistol from the display window.

Officers said entry was apparently by forcing a sliding door. Loss estimate was $45.

Owner Says Time About Up For Swap

COOS BAY, Ore. (AP) — The man who owns 2,500 key acres within Point Reyes National Seashore said today he has "waited about long enough on the government."

Banker A. W. Sweet and the Interior Department's Bureau of Land Management were in preliminary phases of a possible land trade when the swap came under attack as breaking up a sustained yield timber unit. The land Sweet would have received is public domain timberland in Curry County Ore.

Interior Secretary Stewart Udall said in Washington yesterday that the land trade "is a dead letter at this time."

Sweet said today he has offers from private sources, "some considerably in excess of $2 million."

Sweet told the Associated Press at a recent hearing in Portland that his investment in the Point Reyes land was close to $2 million.

Today Sweet said: "I've waited about long enough on the government."

Sweet said he did not know the plans of those who had made offers to buy his Point Reyes land. There has been speculation that subdivision development would skyrocket the total value.

Dominica Gets OAS As Banker

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — The Organization of American States (OAS), entrusted with keeping the peace here, today took over the role of banker to the strife-torn Dominican Republic.

An OAS spokesman disclosed that troops under OAS command and including U.S. military policemen occupied the central bank last night. The action took place before OAS mediator Jose A. Mora announced he had arranged to pay the salaries of all public employees regardless of their political affiliation.

Checks have been prepared on the basis of April payrolls and will be distributed to all persons on those rolls at locations in Santo Domingo and throughout the country, the spokesman said.

The United States meanwhile announced 19 cease-fire violations up to midnight last night. There were unconfirmed reports one American soldier was wounded in the gunfire, but apparently American forces did not return any fire.

Both sides in the Dominican conflict were reacting cooly to OAS efforts to restore normal conditions.

San Rafael High Votes Two Days

The election was announced for yesterday only, with voting to be before and after school and during the lunch periods. However, said M. Charles Fesler, assistant dean of students who is in charge of elections, it turned out this was in violation of the student body constitution, which calls for two days' voting.

Eighty candidates are in the field for student body and class offices. In case of ties, said Fesler, run-off will be next Tuesday. Vote count of San Rafael High student elections is never announced.

Drivers Hurt In Collision; One Is Booked

Both drivers were slightly injured and one was arrested on a drunken driving charge by San Anselmo police in a head-on accident at 6:25 p.m. yesterday on Center Boulevard near Hooper Lane.

Clifford Rogers, 66, of 272 was booked on the charge and released on $330 bail, to appear this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court. He was driving east on Center Boulevard when his car collided with a eastbound car driven by Donna J. Whipple, 21, of 35 Crest Road, Fairfax.

Each driver claimed the other's car crossed the center line, police reported. Miss Whipple was treated at Marin General Hospital, for a cut elbow. Rogers went to the Hospital about midnight and was treated for chest bruises.

The original building timetable, he said, has been delayed by the rapid rise of building costs in Marin County and by lost assessed valuation due to the transfer of the former San Jose Elementary School District to Novato Unified School District.

Other phases of the program are construction of a girls gymnasium and industrial arts building at Terra Linda High School.

Corona proposed that the San Rafael High School work could start in November and be finished in January, 1967, with the Terra Linda High School projects starting in March, 1968.

Jury Conviction Is Set Aside

A reckless driving jury conviction of Tiburon attorney Harvay E. Groudine was set aside and the charge dismissed today by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court.

Judge Wilson had informed attorneys Wednesday that he would either take that action on grounds of insufficient evidence in the trial, or would accept an affidavid filing by Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, who claimed the judge was prejudiced.

Bales sought unsuccessfully to have the case reheard before another judge.

Judge Wilson, who said he filed a three-page statement on his decision, acted as what is termed "the 13th juror" in overriding the verdict.

Penders said he felt he was within his rights and he had discussed the matter previously with Balmer.

The city manager was planning to transfer one groundsman to the golf course as a greenskeeper, and "this man doesn't want the job," Penders said.

Police Chief Terzich, when asked what happened at the meeting, said "no comment."

Armager, asked if he attended, replied, "yes." Asked what happened, he answered, "I know nothing about it."

The Mill Valley Employees Assn. last night discussed the subject, reported President William Walsh, but took no stand. Penders was present at the meeting.

Penders, 59, has held his position 14 years. His job was saved once before in 1963 when then-City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants recommended he be demoted to greenskeeper. Penders and many residents protested and the city council kept Penders as park superintendent after a stormy hearing. When Balmer succeeded Almcrants as city manager a few months later, he said there would be no change in Penders' status for the time being.

Mayor Michael Wornum went on record early this year in council meeting that employees are welcome to speak to the council. The question was put to him by fireman Jim Vice.

On Jan. 18, Mayor Wornum when Manuel Gomez charged the council was trying to "muzzle" him in a proposed change in council conduct, said it was his desire to let all speak in full "town hall meeting" style.

Court To Rule On Suspects In Owen Burglary

San Francisco Superior Court Judge Harry Neubarth today said he will rule June 23 on a motion to set aside indictments against four men accused of the attemped April 6 burglary of the San Francisco home of Sally Stanford (Mrs. Marsha Owen).

Attorneys moved that the cases against suspended San Francisco Police Officers Salvetore Polani and Patrick Buckman and ex-convicts Wesley Gant and Louis Romero be dropped for lack of evidence. Judge Neubarth asked that the motion be submitted in writing.

Earlier this week, the case was moved to Judge Neubarth's division from that of another judge who disqualified himself.

Judge Peter Allen Smith granted his request for two weeks continuance to obtain counsel. Sullivan, arrested by district attorney's investigators in cooperation with Novato police Monday, was charged yesterday with fondling Novato girls aged 4, 5, 7 and 9, last April 15.

Budget Session Is Cancelled

Sausalito City Council finance committee cancelled its budget meeting set for tonight and agreed that, if next Tuesday's regular council meeting is short, it will take up the budget then.

Fire, planning department, library and building inspector budgets were discussed by the committee last night but no action taken.

The council indicated, reported City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, that it would prefer to expand the work load in planning for present employees rather than hire a new person for planning as Brown has recommended.

The committee is about one-third through the budget.

next to Taylor's land.

"It's not your property, it's ours," Knill answered.

Mrs. Knill moved forward to push Taylor. Her husband grabbed her. "Calm down," he said.

Knill today established a different attack. He went to Marin Superior Court and obtained from Judge Thomas F. Keating an order for Taylor and his wife, Isabelle D., to show cause at 2 p.m. next Tuesday why they should not be held in contempt of court for alleged violation of deed restrictions.

The hearing will be before Judge Keating.

Yesterday's row began in mid-afternoon when Taylor put a chain around a 50-foot pine tree and pulled it down with a bulldozer.

Mrs. Knill, who had been keeping vigil from her newly constructed house above the Taylor property, heard the "buzz saws."

She ran down and sat on the tree, defying Taylor to continue tree cutting to clear the way for his equipment to begin removing trees which the Knills contend are on their property. Taylor says it's his property, just in front of the Knill house.

"I told him if he sawed up the tree, he'd have to saw me up," Mrs. Knill said. "It's the first sit-in demonstration I've ever been in."

As Mrs. Knill talked to reporters, the sound of the buzz saws was heard and the tree began to be cut up. Mrs. Knill glared impotently.

The Knill home was just completed at 421 East Strawberry Drive. The young couple moved in three weeks ago. They estimated the lot at two-thirds of an acre, and said lot and home were worth $80,000.

The Knills and other residents of Strawberry instigated a zoning change which raised minimum lot size of the area from 7,500 to 20,000 square feet.

County planning commission agreed. The county board of supervisors passed an ordinance amendment embodying the larger lot size.

Taylor applied for and received a grading permit from the county public works department about six weeks ago.

He proceeded to make "glorious cuts and fills, vertical cuts and loose fills," said Donald R. Frost, county director of public works.

Public works inspectors asked Taylor for more specific plans for the grading. Taylor refused them, Frost said.

It was temporarily settled Monday in Marin Superior Court when both sides agreed to stipulations. Under them, the grading permit is revoked and Taylor may not fill more than three feet deep nor cut more than six feet deep on his lots without a new permit.

The Knills and another neighbor, Bernard Osher, whose lot also abuts on Taylor's parcels, also have filed suit to require Taylor to be bound by lot size restrictions and alleged deed restrictions.

David Van Pelt of the county planning department reported Taylor is requesting subdivision of his property which Van Pelt described as "gerrymandering." The request has not reached the planning commission yet.

Today's court order to show cause was granted on the signed declaration of the Knills citing an April 26 preliminary injunction order by Judge Keating directed Taylor and other defendants to "act in accordance with certain private deed restrictions contained in a declaration of Marin Title Guarantee Co." and recorded June 16, 1959.

The subdivision of 47 lots was owned by Samuel R. Neider, who conveyed it to Marin Title on Oct. 7, 1958, "presumably" to facilitate transfer of title to individual lots on sale, according to the Knills' declaration.

They stated that after Neider's death, the remaining lots were sold April 9, 1963, to Milland Development Co. and on last Jan. 8 the still unsold lots were purchased by the Taylors

The Knills also allege the Taylors have excavated and removed trees on three lots without approval of an architectural committee, as provided for in deed restrictions.

Burglars Loot Pastor's Study

Irreverent burglars yesterday looted the unlocked pastor's study of Peace Lutheran Church in Tamalpais Valley of office machines and an $8 petty cash fund, sheriff's officers reported today.

Rev. Harold G. Johnson told deputies entry was apparently through an unlocked front door of the church on Tennessee Valley Road. He said a typewriter, dictaphone, amplifier and the cash were missing.

Walter Diekmann of Diekmann's General Store, Tomales, told deputies someone entered the store last week and took a .22-caliber rifle, a gun telescope, and a B-B pistol from the display window.

Officers said entry was apparently by forcing a sliding door. Loss estimate was $45.

Owner Says Time About Up For Swap

COOS BAY, Ore. (AP) — The man who owns 2,500 key acres within Point Reyes National Seashore said today he has "waited about long enough on the government."

Banker A. W. Sweet and the Interior Department's Bureau of Land Management were in preliminary phases of a possible land trade when the swap came under attack as breaking up a sustained yield timber unit. The land Sweet would have received is public domain timberland in Curry County Ore.

Interior Secretary Stewart Udall said in Washington yesterday that the land trade "is a dead letter at this time."

Sweet said today he has offers from private sources, "some considerably in excess of $2 million."

Sweet told the Associated Press at a recent hearing in Portland that his investment in the Point Reyes land was close to $2 million.

Today Sweet said: "I've waited about long enough on the government."

Sweet said he did not know the plans of those who had made offers to buy his Point Reyes land. There has been speculation that subdivision development would skyrocket the total value.

Innocent Plea In Novato Case

John Cecil Sullivan, 46, of 81 Grande Vista, Novato, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to four counts of lewd and lascivious behavior with children.

Judge Peter Allen Smith granted his request for two weeks continuance to obtain counsel. Sullivan, arrested by district attorney's investigators in cooperation with Novato police Monday, was charged yesterday with fondling Novato girls aged 4, 5, 7 and 9, last April 15.

Budget Session Is Cancelled

Sausalito City Council finance committee cancelled its budget meeting set for tonight and agreed that, if next Tuesday's regular council meeting is short, it will take up the budget then.

Fire, planning department, library and building inspector budgets were discussed by the committee last night but no action taken.

The council indicated, reported City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, that it would prefer to expand the work load in planning for present employees rather than hire a new person for planning as Brown has recommended.

The committee is about one-third through the budget.

Condition Still Poor After Auto Accident

Charles S. Harris, 29, of Point Reyes Station was still in poor condition today in the intensive care unit of Marin General Hospital, after suffering abdominal injuries in an auto accident yesterday.

She and her husband, attorney Robert Frick, moved from Los Angeles to Inverness in 1945 after his retirement. She moved to 18 Piedmont Avenue, Larkspur, in 1950 after her husband's death.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Madeline F. Allen, wife of former Mayor Daniel Allen of Larkspur, Mrs. Anne F. Keeler of San Anselmo, and Mrs. Barbara F. Barrett of Palo Alto, and by seven grandchildren.

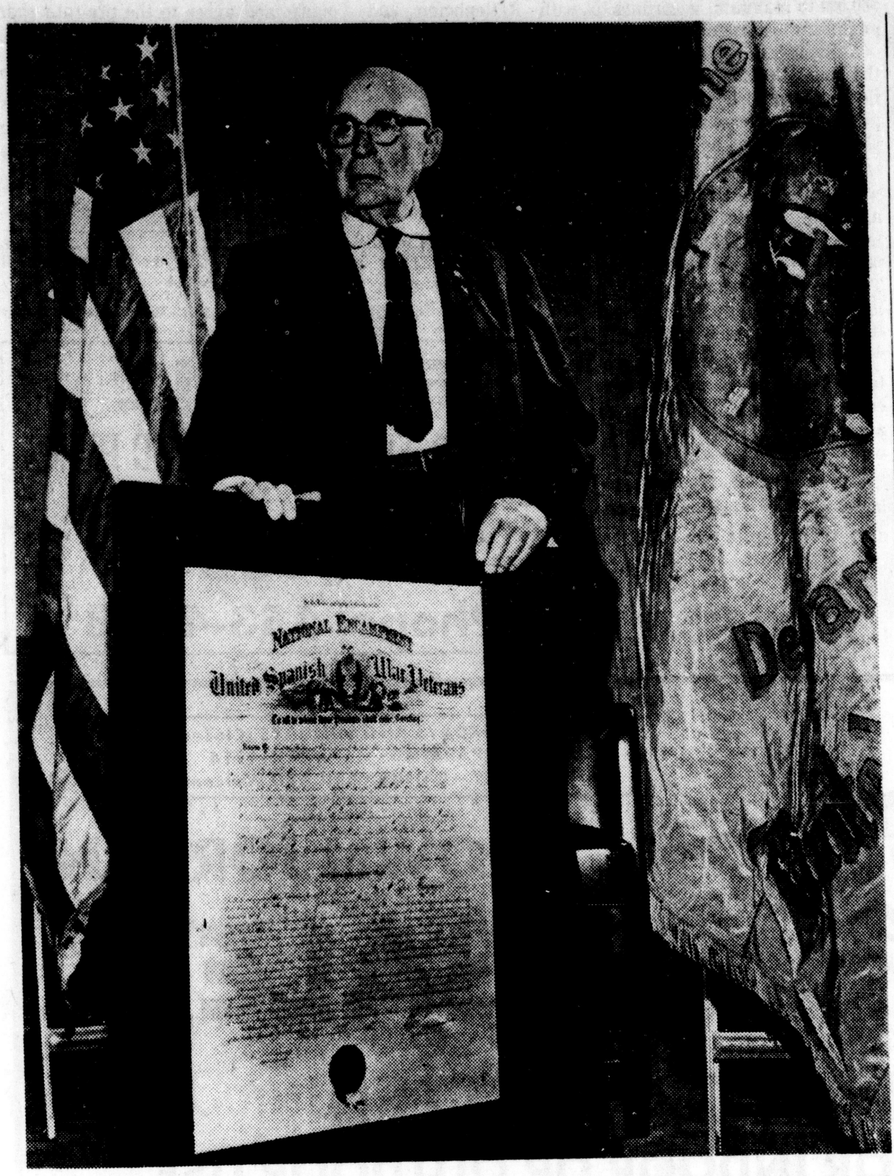
OPEN SUNDAY & MEMORIAL DAY 11 - 5



THE LAST MEMBER—One would never know by looking at Edward Keber of San Rafael that he is 85 years old, but he is. As last surviving member of Marin County's camp of the United Spanish-American War Veterans, he will formally disband the local group Sunday at Memorial Day services. He poses here with his mementoes, including the camp charter, which will be turned over to the American Legion.

American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of World War I, Marin County Reserve Officers Assn., Marin County Fleet Reserve Assn., Gold Star Mothers and Boy Scouts.

There also will be Memorial Day observances at Mill Valley city hall at 10 a.m., in Fairfax at noon, and in Novato at 2 p.m.

Keber was 20 when he joined the army in Cincinatti, Ohio, during the Spanish - American War. He trained at Fort Stevens, Ore., but the war ended in its two combat zones—Cuba and the Phillipines—before he left this country.

"If I had seen a Spaniard, I would have run like hell," he quipped this week as he protested that "I don't feel qualified to be called a Spanish-American War veteran."

After careers as an arbitrator of the Illinois State Industrial Commission and as a claims manager for an insurance company in that state, Keber retired in 1945 and moved to Southern California. He came to Marin in 1957 after 10 years in Pasadena.

He will appear at 10 a.m. Sunday on radio KTIM with a recorded statement about the disbanding of the local veterans' group.

John H. Harris Camp was formed in 1905 with 32 members. The membership at one time grew to 150, but had dropped to 33 by 1958. Keber was left the sole member last year with the death of Maj. Robert M. Martin.

Keber plans to give the group's charter to Wilkins Post 37, American Legion, whose members will keep it on display as an historical document.

Marinite Resigns Daly City School Job

Greenbrae resident Richard L. Foster said today he resigned as superintendent of Daly City's Jefferson Elementary School District Wednesday because "I just decided it was time to make my move."

After district trustees accepted Foster's resignation Wednesday night in a closed-door session, a furore arose among the 20-school district's teachers. Threats of trustee recall attempts were voiced.

"I had no problems," Foster insisted today. "I'll tell you next week what my plans are. My resignation is effective June 28."

Foster, who lives at 5 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae, was Marin County superintendent of schools during the interlude between the resignation of Dr. Wallace L. Hall and the election of Virgil S. Hollis. He did not run for election.

Both before and after his superintendency, Foster served as Marin County assistant superintendent. He went to the Daly City post six years ago.

As recently as late February, Foster's district was chosen as one of three in the nation for an experiment in film teaching, because of its high teaching standards and "unusual rapport between teachers and administrators."

Yesterday, Mrs. Katherine Mullen, Jefferson trustee, said she felt it came because he was not receiving the support of the board majority. No reason was given in the letter of resignation.

Also yesterday, 200 teachers met to endorse Foster's program and urge its continuation. A "recall" meeting has been called for next Wednesday and a citizens committee is organizing.

'Right-To-Work' Law Struck Down

FRANKFORT, Ky. (UPI) — The Kentucky Court of Appeals today struck down local "right-to-work" ordinances as invalid and unenforceable.

Congress extended to states, not municipalities, the power to pass "right-to-work" laws, the high court said.

The court's decision was rendered in an appeal challenging the first local right-to-work ordinance in Kentucky history. The ordinance was passed Feb. 20, 1964, by the Shelbyville City Council and was upheld by the Shelby Circuit Court.

"It is our conclusion that Congress has pre-empted from cities the field undertaken to be entered by the Shelbyville ordinance," Commissioner Robert K. Cullen wrote for the high court.

U.S. Working On A-Weapon For Front Line

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is developing more accurate tactical nuclear weapons for the use of front-line troops in Europe, presumably to replace the Davy Crockett atomic gun at some future date.

But, said the Defense Department in a statement last night, "no decision has been made to withdraw the Davy Crockett from its current deployment in Europe," where it is assigned to five U.S. divisions.

The Davy Crockett, variously called a bazooka or a mortar, is small enough to be handled by two or three men and may be jeep-mounted. It is a long, tubular weapon with a solid fuel missile which throws a bulbous atomic warhead. Its explosive force is equal only to a few tons of TNT whereas most nuclear weapons are compared with thousands or millions of tons of TNT.

Small by atomic standards, it is designed to break up enemy assaults and support counter-attacks.

The Defense Department said last night that it had conducted studies of the Davy Crockett's effectiveness in relation to its cost.

"As weapons which can do the same job more accurately and effectively for less money are developed, they will be assigned to troops in Europe," the Pentagon said.

Novato Junior Chamber Elects

Eugene Strockbine of 59 Grande Vista was elected president of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce last night. He succeeds James Pelmulder, who was elected state director by the group.

Elected to the board of directors were Edward W. Adams, Paul Dock, Steven C. Keeler, Henry Puccinelli and Norbert Souza.

Installation of the officers will be at 7:30 p.m. June 26 at the Cloud Five Restaurant in Novato.

Bond Issue Backed

Mill Valley Chamber of commerce directors Wednesday endorsed the $7,750,000 county bond issue to finance the second stage of the Civic Center. Action, said board president E. R. Pedersen, followed a questionnaire to chamber members asking if anyone opposed the proposition. No letter was reveived in opposition.

College Students Backing Salary Hikes For Teachers

Renato Sottile, student body president, presented to the board a student executive council resolution supporting the pay request.

Sottile also said the student council was proposed to increasing parking fees, as had been suggested, until more and better parking areas were provided.

The college trustees postponed scheduled budget discussion because one trustee, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, had laryingitis, and another, Robert E. Oliver, was absent.

The Marin Junior College District Board also:

1. Adopted design and colors for furniture for the student center, now under construction. Trustee Kent O. Seymour abstained, saying did not approve of the design of the dining room tables.

2. Heard from Dean Irwin P. Diamond that disqualification of students because of low grades had dropped from about 17 per cent to about 11 per cent, mainly because of a policy change allowing students to take leaves of absence or drop courses later in the semester.

3. Adopted a resolution memorializing the state legislators about expected increases in junior college enrollment and need for increased state aid.

4. Heard from College President Stephen E. Epler that the Babcock Foundation would give another $15,000 next year to help support the registered nursing training program.

NEW PETS NEED NAMES — Two young seals give look for look to visitors at Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael. The pair, replacing "Easter," a seal that swallowed too much hardware, arrived yesterday afternoon. They lack names, and the museum is offering prizes for the best boy-and-girl names for the pair.

Boyd Museum Gets New Seals, But It's Up To Public For Names

Two new seals arrived at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael yesterday, but they are lacking names.

The naming of the seals will be up to the public, reported Clara Evans, acting director.

"We're having a contest," she said. "The winning names will be picked by the staff and announced at the 10th anniversary party June 6."

The two seals, trucked down from the Eureka area, will replace Easter, the museum's first seal. It died from a diet of coins, rocks and other hardware that were tossed into the pool.

Mrs. Evans urged residents to send suggested names to the museum by next Friday.

Three youngsters who wish to remain anonymous donated the funds to purchase one of the seals. The Independent Insurance Agents Assn. of Marin donated the other seal.

Mrs. Evans said she is not certain of the sex of the seals, but assumed that one is a girl and one a boy, so both boy and girl names will be acceptable in the contest.

In an effort to prevent another seal tragedy, the museum will have the new seals periodically examined by a veterinarian to determine if they are swollowing undigestable items, Mrs. Evans said.

There also will be a sign at the pool "to remind people what happened to Easter." A wishing well will be installed for those who must throw coins, she said.

Mrs. Evans also announced re-opening of the reptile, amphibian and fishes room, which has been closed since January for remodeling.

The new room has been named the Gabrielson Room in honor of a former museum director, the late Carl W. Gabrielson of Sausalito.

It contains new salt and fresh water fish tanks and an alligator tank, complete with toads and turtles.

There also is a glass-fronted tropical reptile case, eight feet high, 10 feet long and three feet deep.

Major financing for the remodeling was a $1,500 donation in Gabrielson's memory by Robert Dollar Co. of San Francisco. Gabrielson was a director of the company. Other donations were made by Marin business firms.

Remodeling plans were suggested by Dr. Earl S. Harold, director of Steinhart Aquarium in San Francisco and member of the scientific advisory board for the museum.

Mrs. Evans also announced that Sunday visiting hours are now from noon to 5 p.m. Other regular hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

Flood Control Plan Down The Drain?

By RICHARD LYTTLE

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen fears the Corte Madera Creek flood control project may be "going down the drain."

Kettenhofen said today the project is in jeopardy because the cities involved are unwilling to take on the maintenance costs and because the effort to form a county-wide flood control district appears to be dead or dying.

Kettenhofen, who succeeded in getting the work tackled by stages, announced several weeks ago that construction of the lower phase from the Bay to the Ross town line would probably begin next May.

However, the Army Corps of Engineers cannot proceed until there is assurance that maintenance will be taken care of.

The entire project from the Bay up through Ross, San Anselmo and Fairfax will cost about three million dollars and will not be completed for several years.

Cities have generally declined the request from Kettenhofen to join a flood control zone to take care of the maintenance cost, estimated at $28,000 a year for the whole project. The first phase would cost from $15,000 to $20,000 to maintain, according to engineers' estimates.

Kettenhofen put his hope in the legislation for a county-wide flood control district when it appeared the cities wanted to "let George do it," as he says.

The county-wide legislation would amend the present code to allow the county to charge up to 50 cents per $100 assessed valuation for flood control projects. This money could be used both in and outside city and present flood control zone boundaries.

The City of Tiburon has protested the measure and succeeded on Monday in getting an amendment to the bill which would exclude the city.

County officials are now trying to get this amendment withdrawn, offering to pay back the city share of taxes on a pro-rata basis.

County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost, in conference with Kettenhofen and County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney yesterday said the city share returned by the county would be less any work done through the county fund within Tiburon's boundary, as he sees the proposal.

The flood control bill is due to be discussed by county supervisors Tuesday. They hope to know by then whether Tiburon will withdraw its amendment and agree to the pro-rata share compromise.

Fairfax, Corte Madera and San Anselmo, however, have also protested the bill. Maloney believes their objections, if not withdrawn, will block passage of the bill by the legislature.

U. S. Census Bureau predicts that by 1985 every two out of five persons will be a teen-ager.

NEW PETS NEED NAMES — Two young seals give look for look to visitors at Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael. The pair, replacing "Easter," a seal that swallowed too much hardware, arrived yesterday afternoon. They lack names, and the museum is offering prizes for the best boy-and-girl names for the pair.

Boyd Museum Gets New Seals, But It's Up To Public For Names

Two new seals arrived at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael yesterday, but they are lacking names.

The naming of the seals will be up to the public, reported Clara Evans, acting director.

"We're having a contest," she said. "The winning names will be picked by the staff and announced at the 10th anniversary party June 6."

The two seals, trucked down from the Eureka area, will replace Easter, the museum's first seal. It died from a diet of coins, rocks and other hardware that were tossed into the pool.

Mrs. Evans urged residents to send suggested names to the museum by next Friday.

MARMOSETS FOR CHILDREN

This is a family of five tiny golden marmosets at the Children's Zoo in San Diego, as they were displayed yesterday. Papa (top) holds one of the twins that were born in March. The other twin (center, right) clings to Mama. Auntie (bottom) and big brother (left) complete the family portrait. (UPI Telephoto)

Bus Stop Moved In Rights Case

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga. (UPI)—The operator of a bus station moved his business from a cafe today to thwart civil rights workers who had planned to use a passenger rest break as a wedge to get inside the eating place.

C.E. Bonner moved his bus business from the Liberty Cafe to his grocery around the corner and said buses will be stopping there for the present.

Bonner's wife operates the Liberty Cafe, and closed it yesterday rather than serve Negroes. The bus ticket office and waiting room had been located in part of the cafe.

Grass Fire Hits Central State

COALINGA (UPI)—The first major grass and brush fire of the year in Central California was confined to 500 acres early today but high temperatures and light winds hampered efforts to put the fire out.

A California Division of Forestry spokesman said additional fire crews and trucks were being rushed to the Pine Box Canyon fire and ground crews would attempt to strengthen the fire line today.

He said there was little hope of putting the fire out for a couple of days.

Organist's Knife Death Is Probed

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Police today investigated the slaying of Deforest (dee) Fisher, 44, organist at Sea World Oceanrium here and former organist at Disneyland in Anaheim.

The body of Fisher, clad only in shorts, was found yesterday by two co - workers who went to the Fisher apartment when the organist failed to report for work.

Police said Fisher, a bachelor, had been stabbed in the chest and arms with a paring knife. The knife was imbedded in Fisher's chest.

Property Group Urged To Be Constructive

Superior Court Judge Samuel W. Gardiner last night urged the newly formed Marin Property Owners Assn. to be constructive, not negative.

He spoke at the association's first membership dinner at Dominic's Restaurant, which was attended by more than 200 persons.

"If we get the reputation of being negative, we're dead ducks," Judge Gardiner said.

There are "despoilers" who would undertake development in Marin without regard, and there are people "who want to turn back the hands of time" and "keep out immigration," he said. But the "vast majority are fair-minded," and are willing to proceed with normal development in Marin. "The tragedy is that most of them are very busy and don't attend meetings."

Good development needs the support "of responsible citizens, openly and publicly," he said. "Don't let the hearing be packed by those who say 'don't have the 20th century.'"

Those who have property interests should take the time and spend the money to develop "good, constructive, overall plans," he said.

Judge Gardiner said, "I have tidelands, and I don't want to see bad development."

When land is frozen by a moratorium, the property owner is in "a bad way," because he still has to pay taxes on the land and interest on his loan, the judge noted.

When zoning was started years ago few persons thought it might include the power to prevent development and "to prevent anyone else from being served," he said.

Judge Gardiner suggested the association develop its policies on the county budget and property taxes gradually, and study what other organizations have done in other places.

Association President C. A. Stevens said the association has enrolled 90 members in the 90 days if its existence, and is half-way toward its $20,000 budget.

The association plans to hire an executive director, and interviewing of applicants will start next week, he said.

Paradise Property Nominations

Ralph Wertheimer, 4930 Paradise Drive on the Tiburon Peninsula, has been nominated to serve his second term as president of the Paradise Property Owners Assn.

Election will be the last week in June at the annual meeting.

Also nominated were Leo Souza, vice president; Mrs. William F. Redfield Jr., secretary; William Di Grazia, treasurer.

Directors at a recent meeting voted to back the efforts of Tiburon Peninsula residents to "secure an equitable adjustment of the new assessments," Wertheimer reported.

Association directors went on record against deletion of expansion for Marin Headlands and Tamalpais State Parks from the state budget this year. Directors are supporting the bill of State Sen. Eugene McAteer of San Francisco which would control bay fill through requiring permits from a supervisoral agency.

Outing To Valley Of The Moon Can Provide Dining Pleasures

Adobe Canyon, tucked away in the Valley of the Moon, Sonoma County, boasts one very popular attraction besides the scenery—and more than one Marinite has had occasion to enjoy it.

This is Golden Bear Lodge near Kenwood, owned by Art Dieterle and Gene Boulware. Regularly every year it opens for dinners on March 1, and just as regularly it closes down for the winter right after Thanksgiving Day.

The Lodge is about midway between the City of Sonoma and Santa Rosa, so for a change of scenery I'd suggest approaching it from one direction and returning the other way. Particularly if you drive there on a Sunday when it's open from 2 to 9 p.m. Weekdays the service is from 5 to 10—except on Thursday, the closing day.

Art is the front man at Golden Bear. He welcomes you, makes reservations, directs traffic and generally does everything a dining room manager would do. Gene is the man behind the scenes, probably known more for his deeds than his person. That is the lot of a man who elects to be a chef.

One of his outstanding deeds is his smorgasbord. Dinners are served with or without it, but the difference in price is only 35 cents, and that's a small amount to pay for what you get. The rest of the dinner menu ranges from $2.95 to $5.50 (smorgasbord included) and you'll find such selections as chicken, squab, turkey, duck, lobster and other seafoods, choice steaks, roasts and chops. Special children's dinners are served.

You'll enjoy the ride—and the Golden Bear.

IN ONE CASE, at least, it might be said that what travels to a man's stomach depends upon his salesmanship.

This is the annual "Steak and Beans Contest" of Campbell-Bishop Chevrolet Co. in Corte Madera. This year it consisted again of dividing the sales force into two teams during the month of April and letting them battle it out for their supper.

The payoff came a few nights ago at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant when the whole gang sat down to eat. Team captain Elwood Frink and his members Lou Overhouse, Charles James, Harry Gossage and Nick Lettiere settled down to some choice New York cuts and filets Mignon.

But the losing side—captain Irv Sutley, Stan Wisnes, Mait Cline, Don De Bisschop and John Brusati had to settle for a menu of bean soup, bean salad, baked beans, string beans, green beans—and ice cream topped with garbanzo beans.

ROY AND NIK FRANCHINI served enough Christian Brothers champagne at the Chateau during their fourth anniversary celebration Tuesday through last night to launch a fleet — and probably served enough food to feed it as well.

Through all three evening festivities, bantam rooster Henry and his more "dimensionable" consort Henrietta perched with closed eyes beneath the awning just outside the cocktail lounge, while a few feet away from them on the fence roosted Mr. Chips, who during the daytime is a formidable rival for Henrietta's affections. He slept peacefully with his tail feathers swishing in the breeze.

Ducks and geese scuttled across the pond in the wake of any of their number who showed signs of having the inside track on a choice tidbit. And the deer, Bambi and Squeaky, nibbled along the opposite shore, half concealed by the overhanging greenery. It's a scene that is reenacted nightly.

But apropos of the fare at Franchini's—I am moved to comment that Roy's many years as butcher and supplier to restaurants have served him in good stead here. It's not always who's in the kitchen that determines the palatability of the viands on your plate. Quality of the food that's bought and how it's kept and handled between delivery and the cooking are also important. That's where Roy shines and you can detect the difference in taste.

Franchini's will close on Monday (not Sunday) in observance of Memorial Day.

AND SINCE Memorial Day does actually fall on this Sunday, La Petite Auberge in San Rafael will close that day. It's also closed on Monday regularly.

Accordionist Al Stone may possibly be back from Australia by next week, but chef and co-owner Roger Poli still has a couple of weeks remaining in his leave and I understand he's having too good a time in Paris to cut it short.

ON BOTH SUNDAY AND MONDAY, Sabella's will feature holiday bus rides to Candlestick Park for the Giants' games with St. Louis. They include a gin fizz brunch, round trip to the game and good seat. Price is $7.90 (each day, of course).

OLD HIGH SCHOOL BUDDIES were Alice Ghostly, who starred in "The Sign in Sidney Burnstein's Window" at the Geary Theatre, and Gordon Jones, co-owner and chef at Rubini's. She showed up at the Fairfax restaurant recently and that gave them a chance to talk about the old days (10 years ago) at Henrietta High School in Oklahoma.

I'VE BEEN TRYING to persuade Leo Albertoni that he should feature his "saltimboca with risotto a la Milanese" regularly on the menu at Mission Inn, San Rafael. He'll prepare it for a group, but hasn't yet gotten to the point where he's willing to chance there being enough individual orders for it day by day.

Maybe if you added your persuasion to mine we could convince him he should cook this delicious Italian dish at least once a week. He really does a wonderful job on it. The same as he does on the soup here.

And Pam Lopez—are you reading this? You should like both of them. At night. With your boy friend. In the dining room.

ONE OF THE FIRST things manager Dick Walters decided to do on returning to Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito was to start a Sunday brunch featuring eggs Benedict with champagne.

IF YOU HAVE MISSED seeing adult beverage mixer Don Lindsay around the county for the last two years—it's because he isn't here any more. You'll find him now at a quaint little place with a Jack London atmosphere called Rustic Inn at Glen Ellen, Sonoma County. Drop by and let him serve you next time you're up that way.

EVERY TIME I notice the way my grape leaves are sprouting this year I think of the Civic Center Coffee Shop and what could be done here to turn them into that savoury Greek dish "dolmathes." Stuffed with meat—but the flavor's the thing.

Wednesdays at lunch are your only chance. Beth Taylor still hasn't opened for dinners (except for groups by reservation). A lot of food savants around the county agree with me that what we need in Marin is a gourmet Greek dinery. With Beth to run it. And Lou Getas to cook in it.

The way this area is due to build up it's an ideal location for one.

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for *every*body.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

LIGHTING UP SKY BEFORE BLAST

Patrons of a Los Angeles suburban drive-in theater were given two shows last night. Besides the one on the screen, the sky was lighted up with the trail of an Atlas missile launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Santa Barbara County, which exploded two minutes after launch, marking the second successive failure in an effort to tote a piggyback research satellite into orbit.

County Works To Keep Its Flood Proposal

An Amendment to Marin County's controversial flood control bill was being prepared today by County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney in hope it would make the bill more palatable to city government.

Several cities protested the bill and the City of Tiburon succeeded in tying an amendment to it which will exclude Tiburon from the county-wide flood control district the bill would create.

Maloney's amendment would provide for a return of flood district tax money to the cities on a pro-rata basis, less any work the county might do within the city or directly connected with the city's flood problem.

The county-wide district envisioned in the bill would have a maximum tax of $1 per $100 assessed valuation.

The bill, however, has already come out of the State Senate Water Resources Committee with a "do pass" recommendation and with the Tiburon exclusion. Maloney said he does not know if the county can succeed in attatching an amendment to it at this stage.

Police Subdue Youth, Jail Him In Dope Case

Sausalito police were forced to subdue an 18-year-old man in the middle of the on-ramp to Highwal 101 near Marinship Gate 6 last night after he took a swing at Chief Kenneth H. Huck and Patrolman Herbert Smith.

The man, Vincent Blair Melovich of 424 Pine Street, was stopped by police after allegedly driving "very erratically" northbound on Bridgeway at 7:15 p.m.

Officers removed Melovich from the car. Then, they said he swung at Huck and Smith.

Lt. Ted Zink, third officer present, said it took about a minute to subdue Melovich.

Melovich was placed in county jail along with two companions. A fourth person, a 16-year-old Sausalito youth, was placed in juvenile hall on suspicion of transporting narcotics. The boy is a drop-out from Tamalpais High School.

Melovich, unemployed, was booked on suspicion of transporting narcotics, reckless driving, battery of a peace officer and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Reynold Fith, 18, of 375 Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, who works at a Corte Madera car wash, and Wilber John Lum, 19, of 7 Excelsior Lane, Sausalito, a self-employed Tiki carver, were arrested on suspicion of transporting narcotics and contributing to delinquency of a minor.

Zink said that " a considerable amount" of what appeared to be marijuana in leaf form, was found on the floor boards of the yellow Opel sedan.

There are 9.5 million licensed drivers in California.

Dam Repair Bill Passed By Senate

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill that would provide a state loan to rehabilitate Phoenix Lake for recreation purposes won Senate approval and is headed for the Assembly.

Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, author of the bill (SB 587) said the measure would authorize the State Department of Water Resources to make loans for repair of dams. The only one in Marin that would be affected is Phoenix Dam, which was condemned as unsafe by the Marin Municipal Water District.

Another McCarthy bill (SB 1346), which would impose more control over Synanon houses, passed the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee and is headed for the Finance Committee.

The measure would require that narcotic rehabilitation centers like Synanon houses be licensed by the state director of public health.

Kentfield Fire Board Calls Fire Truck Bids

Directors of Kentfield Fire District last night called for bids on a new squad truck for the department, to be opened July 8. The truck, smaller than the regular fire engine, is expected to cost about $13,500.

The board set next month's meeting for June 17, one week earlier than usual, and scheduled consideration of final budget for the 1966 fiscal year for that time.

Council Given Budget, Returns To Rec Fuss

Corte Madera's town council was presented a $558,793 budget for the 1966 fiscal year by Mayor Edward W. Colthurst last night, and immediately returned to a dispute about support for a recreation program.

The budget is down sharply from the $738,148 budget of this year, but that figure was inflated by inclusion of $200,000 in bond money for building the new public safety building.

Largest item in the new budget is $65,000 to remodel the town hall after police and fire departments move into the public safety building.

A $20,000 item was included for purchase of a pumper truck for the fire department, although the department had requested $27,000. The council set a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday to discuss fire and police requests in more detail.

Also at that meeting, the council will discuss salaries with leaders of the Town Employees' Assn. The association asked for a 5 per cent pay increase, but the budget allows for only half that much.

Money was included to add a sixth patrolman to the police department and to buy two new patrol cars and a crime laboratory vehicle. The department request for still another policeman and more clerical help was not put in.

The fire department was allotted $3,180 to pay for persons to sleep in when the new second fire house is completed east of Highway 101.

On recreation, the budget included only $3,400, enough to carry the program of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission through this summer only.

Councilman Charles F. Pendleton said he felt the Larkspur School District should give more money to the program. Colthurst said he would be satisfied if there were only a summer recreation program.

Councilman Albert E. Kogler, a member of the joint commission, argued for an increase in the amount, saying a program for only part of the year would be poor because a full-time director is needed.

LIGHTING UP SKY BEFORE BLAST

Patrons of a Los Angeles suburban drive-in theater were given two shows last night. Besides the one on the screen, the sky was lighted up with the trail of an Atlas missile launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Santa Barbara County, which exploded two minutes after launch, marking the second successive failure in an effort to tote a piggyback research satellite into orbit.

County Works To Keep Its Flood Proposal

An Amendment to Marin County's controversial flood control bill was being prepared today by County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney in hope it would make the bill more palatable to city government.

Several cities protested the bill and the City of Tiburon succeeded in tying an amendment to it which will exclude Tiburon from the county-wide flood control district the bill would create.

Maloney's amendment would provide for a return of flood district tax money to the cities on a pro-rata basis, less any work the county might do within the city or directly connected with the city's flood problem.

The county-wide district envisioned in the bill would have a maximum tax of $1 per $100 assessed valuation.

The bill, however, has already come out of the State Senate Water Resources Committee with a "do pass" recommendation and with the Tiburon exclusion. Maloney said he does not know if the county can succeed in attatching an amendment to it at this stage.

Police Subdue Youth, Jail Him In Dope Case

Sausalito police were forced to subdue an 18-year-old man in the middle of the on-ramp to Highwal 101 near Marinship Gate 6 last night after he took a swing at Chief Kenneth H. Huck and Patrolman Herbert Smith.

The man, Vincent Blair Melovich of 424 Pine Street, was stopped by police after allegedly driving "very erratically" northbound on Bridgeway at 7:15 p.m.

Officers removed Melovich from the car. Then, they said he swung at Huck and Smith.

Lt. Ted Zink, third officer present, said it took about a minute to subdue Melovich.

Melovich was placed in county jail along with two companions. A fourth person, a 16-year-old Sausalito youth, was placed in juvenile hall on suspicion of transporting narcotics. The boy is a drop-out from Tamalpais High School.

School Budget $1,143,785 Gains With One In Audience

With only Larkspur City Councilman Vaughn M. Marker in the audience, the Larkspur School District board last night adopted a $1,143,785 preliminary budget for the 1966 fiscal year.

The figure was the same as that two weeks ago, when the budget was presented to the board, but the trustees voted to take $1,000 from the community services account and earmark it for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission summer's program.

Supt. Milton S. Cohen reported the district tax rate would drop at least three cents per $100 assessed valuation. This year's total tax rate was $2.99. The cut would come in the general purpose tax, now at the maximum of $2.25.

Cohen said the budget was prepared with an estimate that the assessed valuation in the district would increase seven and one-half per cent, but said that figure may have been too low, in which case the tax cut would be greater.

The budget calls for addition of five teachers for seventh and eighth grades, thus cutting class sizes from 30 to 26, and hiring of a vocal music teacher and four part-time library assistants, plus half the cost of a full-time psychologist. It also included $12,000 worth of library books.

The board hired Mrs. Arlene Kersey as seventh and eighth grade teacher at $6,800 a year and Mrs. Caralee Fromm as first grade teacher at $5,600 a year.

The commission also talked once again about proposed changes in the zoning ordinance and other ordinances affecting land use, and indicated they will hear a progress report on the changes at the June meeting.

Senate Group Slashes At Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The men who presented Gov. Brown's budget to the legislature had this loud and clear message from the Senate today: "We're all angry and we don't like the procedure a bloody bit."

Chairman George Miller Jr., D-Martinez, made the remark last night as his Senate Finance Committee exploded in anger at the Democratic administration's policy of offering the budget in two phases — a $4.03 billion basic plan and a $143 million supplementary spending program.

Still undecided on the basic budget, the committee—all Democrats — turned to the supplementary, or optional section, and trimmed $7.5 million.

Each cut was accompanied by caustic criticism of the policy of splitting the budget into two sections. In the past, the budget was considered as a whole.

Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, called it a "terrible way to conduct the fiscal aspects of government."

McAteer said the request was made in the "same fraudulent manner" the department always operates in.

The governor had said he had decided on the unique, two-phase budget approach this year to give the legislature an idea of the basic needs of the state—and to then give the lawmakers the choice of whether to add new, or optional services, that would require new taxes.

Over $2 million for a new program for the mentally retarded —the product of months of research by a governor's study commission—was eliminated in minutes.

Brown's $250,000 anti-smoking program was quickly dropped.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee has also cut money for the plan, but the administration is seeking to revive it. A bill to do this is pending in the committee.

The Assembly's version of the budget, totaling $4.16 billion, is awaiting a floor vote.

Re-Map Predicted For First District

The First Congressional District will be reapportioned before next year's general election, a prominent Santa Rosa Democrat predicted last night at a meeting of the Marin Council of Democratic Clubs.

George E. McCabe, executive director of the First Congressional District Democratic Central Committee, spoke at the San Rafael courthouse.

McCabe predicted the reapportionment would shift Napa County from the First District (represented by Donald H. Clausen) to the Fourth District (represented by Robert Leggett).

McCabe said 1964 census estimates indicate a total of 604,900 residents in the First District (from Marin to Del Norte) and 353,200 in the Fourth District. Shifting of Napa County (population 74,400) would lower the First District to 530,500.

The council passed a resolution supporting Sen. J. Eugene McAteer's bill (SB 309) to control bay fill. The group also decided to write Congressman Clausen, asking him to vote against permanently seating the regular Mississippi congressional delegation.

Mrs. Elaine Kozak of Sausalito and Mrs. Rose Brodie of Marin City discussed the tutorial program at Manzanita School.

Un-American Hearings End

CHICAGO (UPI)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities, here to probe alleged Communist activities in the Chicago area, wound up its investigation yesterday.

In three days of hearings, there was testimony from two paid FBI informers, a total of 449 "Fifth Amendments" from 10 witnesses and walkouts by three subpoenaed witnesses. There were 70 demonstrators arrested and two pickets with bloodied heads.

Rep. Edwin E. Willis, chairman of the committee, closed the hearings with a warning to the American people that the menace of communism had not ended.

Retired Plasterer

William H. O'Connor, 74, of Sebastopol, who died Wednesday in Santa Rosa, was a retired plasterer, not carpenter as was stated in an obituary in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

Storer Gives Bolinas Sewer Cost Estimate

An engineering study aimed at solving the sewer problems of the Bolinas-Stinson Beach area will cost about $12,000, County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer reported today.

Storer attended the first meeting of a study committee of which he is a member last night at the office of the Bolinas Public utilities District in Bolinas.

He said its has not yet been determined how the study would be financed, and the committee wants a more precise estimate of the cost. The group will meet again at the district office at 8 p.m. June 16.

Others attending the session last night included Charles Hadley and James Dougan of Bolinas and Hugh Dougherty of Stinson Beach.

Open Meeting Bill Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Governmental meetings solely for "deliberation" would be open to the public under a measure approved by the Assembly Government Organization Committee.

Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, author of the bill, said it would not prevent all secret meetings such as conference telephone calls but could make participants feel a pang of conscience.

The bill went to the floor yesterday.

Salary Meeting

Mill Valley Employees Assn. members last night discussed their proposed 12 and one-half per cent salary increase for fiscal 1966 as well as City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer's proposed salary increases but took no action, according to William Walsh, association president. No further meeting was set.

County Receives Bids On Ambulance Plan

Marin County has received three bids on ambulance service for transportation of mentally ill and two bids on transportation of county medical patients, with California Ambulance Service of Novato apparently offering the lowest rates.

The firm offered to transport mentally ill at rates ranging from $29.50 from San Rafael to Napa State Hospital and $33 from Sausalito or Marin City to Napa State Hospital.

Marin Ambulance Service of Larkspur bid at $30 for the trip from San Rafael and the same from Sausalito or Marin City to Napa, thus coming in slightly lower than California Ambulance Service for patients from southern Marin.

United Ambulance Service of San Rafael bid at $35 on all trips.

On transporting county medical patients, the bidding was based on the length of the trip. California Ambulance Service's bids ranged from $10 to $25. United Ambulance's bid ranged from $18 to $25.

Contract for the 1966 fiscal year is to be awarded by the board of supervisors Tuesday.

Residents Warned On Weeds

Mill Valley residents who have not trimmed back weeds, hedges and trees from sidewalks and traveled portions of the street by June 22 will find that the city's brush chipper will do it for them—but without using any special gardening technique.

Ross J. Benson, supervisor of public works, said today that by ordinance residents must keep a minimum of eight feet clearance over any sidewalk or traveled portion of the street.

The city council has declared any such weeds, rubbish and other materials, some of which constitute a fire hazard when dry, a public nuisance.

It's Time Again For Pause To Honor Nation's Heroes

Sunday, May 30, is Memorial Day. We pay tribute to those who gave their lives so that freedom and justice might survive.

In San Rafael, the ceremony will have special significance because it will mark the passing of an era.

The John H. Harris Camp of United Spanish War Veterans will bow out of existence, after 60 years in San Rafael.

The Spanish War Veterans opened their San Rafael headquarters in 1905. Membership, which once numbered 150, has gradually dwindled through the years.

Today, the John Harris Camp is represented by its commander and lone survivor, Edward L. Keber of San Rafael.

The old soldier plans to march himself up to the courthouse steps on Memorial Day for one final salute before bowing the Harris Camp out of the picture as an active organization.

Thus, another gallant group will fade from the scene, giving way to the younger to pick up the baton and carry it forward.

Memorial Day observance dates back to 1868, 97 years ago, when a holiday was proclaimed to pay homage to those who laid down their lives in the Civil War.

Since then, the occasion has taken on broader significance, becoming a day to honor all heroes of wars in which our nation fought.

Throughout the country, there will be oratory and ceremony.

Here in Marin, we pause briefly to remember past heroes who have gone before us, to honor old soldiers like Edward Keber, who provided the link between the 19th and the 20th Centuries, and to pray for the young who are being called on now to fight for freedom and decency both here and abroad.

Our country has grown great because people from every corner of the world, every race and creed toiled together to strive for a common goal.

As we honor the fallen heroes, we re-dedicate ourselves to the principles for which they fought and fell.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

THE WONDERS OF YOUR HEART

Your heart keeps beating about 72 times a minute or approximately 4,320 ttimes an hour. Every 24 hours it beats 103,680 times and in one year in the neighborhood of 37,843,200 times.

At this rate, by the time you reach the age of 65, your heart has beat about two and one-half billion times!

Even though your heart rests for only a fraction of a second between beats, it pumps about 340 gallons of blood throughout your body each hour.

How seldom we reflect on the wonders of creation within our bodies.

Millions travel the world over to seek out marvels, yet never really appreciate the miracle of their own divinely created body.

How great should be our reverence for the handiwork of God in the whole of nature. From the wonder of our heart we can be led to worship and thank the invisible God Who made it and sustains it every moment of every day.

"You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him rule over the works of Your hands." (Psalm 8:6-7)

Thanks to you, O my God, for all the blessings You have entrusted to me.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Rumor Has Behr In Line For Judgeship But Idea Unlikely

By WAT TAKESHITA

IS SUPERVISOR chairman Peter H. Behr in contention for judgeship?

It's rather unlikely, but that's the rumor that's been making the rounds. We can't pinpoint just how the rumor was started, and whether or not it has any substance.

Behr is no doubt a good man, but he is also a good Republican. Doesn't seem logical that Governor Brown would pass up good Democrats like Municipal Judges Joseph Wilson and Leonard Thomas, or Alvin Goldstein and Hadden Roth to pick a Republican.

Takeshita

If Judge Wilson or Judge Thomas is moved up to succeed retiring Judge N. Charles Brusatori, then an opening will be created in municipal court. Favorites to fill that spot are reported to be Goldstein and Roth, in that order.

NO ONE KNOWS for sure whether the Legislature will wind up on schedule—June 18. But there's a note of optimism now that the session will not be quite as long as expected early in the season.

Many of the lawmakers think they'll be out of Sacramento on June 18. The more pessimistic figure they'll have to stay an extra two weeks, or take a short vacation and come back for a special session after July.

DESPITE SOME rumors to the contrary Governor Brown will run for another term next year.

And the man who will no doubt run his campaign again will be Don L. Bradley of Ross. Don and his wife, Sue, will be operating out of Southern California during the 1966 campaign, because the Southland is where the heavy votes are.

But that will be only during the political campaign. They consider Marin their permanent home and will be returning when the 1966 wars are over.

GEORGE McCABE of Sonoma State College, who lost to Congressman Don Clausen last November, is urging all good Democrats, who have the "capability and the electability," to toss in their hats.

"There are Democrats in the district possessed of these attributes in better measure than I," says McCabe. "But if they won't run, I will!" McCabe sounds very much like a man who is going to try again.

BY THE WAY, Roger Garety's superb portrayal of a drunk in the latest Ross Valley Players production, had nothing to do with his appointment to the Alcoholic Beverage Control appeals board.

Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch may get some opposition next year from the county counsel of Santa Clara County. He is Spencer Williams, 43, a Republican who seems genuinely interested in running for the job.

Federalists Work On Diabolical Plan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The harmless looking picture of Reed School District pupils holding United Nations flags given by World Federalists brings into focus one of the most serious problems this country faces today. In this picture there is an element of subterfuge because the World Federalists were presenting the flags, not the United Nations.

We must admire the zeal and tenacity, but not the aim, of the World Federalists in attempting to promote a one-world government using the United Nations as a vehicle.

It must be confusing to the young mind seeing the two flags, knowing now, or shortly in the future, that one cannot serve two masters.

If this diabolical plan should ever become a fact, the freedoms gained over 200 years of struggle would be lost overnight.

County Assessor Deserves Support

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Isn't it time for more of us to take a realistic view of the job that Bert Broemmel is doing as our county assessor? The only function that he and his staff actually perform is that of recording the present value of real property. In this county, where property values have been rising consistently and at times spectacularly in recent years, his unfortunate task (from the standpoint of many taxpayers) has been to record this increased property evaluation in order to obtain a fair division of the property tax load throughout the county.

It is interesting to note that the only significant discrepancies that have been found in his assessments in recent years, when checked by independent surveys as well as by the mandatory review of the State Board of Equalization, has been that some of the assessment levels have been below their market value.

Some people have even gone so far as to recommend that the regular reappraisals be stopped, not realizing that this would only benefit the owners of the property which increases most in value, namely bare land, since the value of homes and buildings increases little if any after completion. Since I am interested in the lowest possible tax rate for all property owners and for fair distribution of the tax burden I should like to join the many who support our assessor and actually encourage him to do a better and more thorough job even than he is doing now.

Seminarians Need To Listen More

Editor, Independent-Journal:

According to report a divinity student at the Seminary has adopted the pen-name "Balaam's Ass" to crusade against what he considers the "far-out" theology being taught in San Anselmo. Like Balaam's Ass, Dr. Robert Cleath, with impeccable educational credentials, is unwilling to take a single step forward against the will of God.

In due season it is prayed the many congregations which contribute funds and scholarships to educate so-called ministers of the Gospel of Christ will, like Balaam, have the good judgment to listen to the wisdom of "Balaam's Ass."

Some of us who no longer participate with the Presbyterian Church for many of the same reasons as given by Dr. Cleath for his opposition, have had the impression the Seminarians, theologically speaking, do not at this time know the Ass from third base.

Welfare Burden Not All Marin's

Editor, Independent-Journal:

About a month ago a representative of California Taxpayers Association stated in your columns that $391,314.83 was paid to recipients of welfare payments, which includes support and medical care payments. An impression was given that Marin County taxpayers are carrying the burden through property taxes.

The truth is that of the $13,975 paid per day in March, 1965, to 4,312 persons, or $3.24 per day per person, the county property tax share was only 17.93 per cent.

The remaining 82.07 per cent was paid from Federal and State sources, which means that every month about $320,905.48 of Federal and State funds is being spent in the County of Marin by recipients of social welfare funds — a mighty boost for the economy of County of Marin.

Of course, the California State Taxpayers Association does not want the public to know that the County of Marin is actually benefitting through each recipient of County welfare. . . .

Let me add that I am very much impressed with the efficient, dignified and humane way these funds are administered by Marin County Welfare Director Miss Betty Presley, a far cry from the way they are administered in New York, or even in San Francisco.

Hoovers' History Of U. N. Questioned

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Won't you please preserve copies of your May 24th edition for historians of the future because of the letter from Gay and Alan Hoover revealing the information that the United Nations was "formed" by one Alger Hiss? Otherwise those poor historians may waste a good deal of time wondering what those duly appointed representatives from 51 different nations were doing in San Francisco between April 25th and June 26th of 1945.

The Hoovers also say that "U. S. school teachers have sufficient intelligence and access to enough proper facts to discern the U. N. hoax. . . ." By all means, that "proper fact" about how the United Nations really got started should be preserved.

There Is A Good Chance Africa Will Make Success Of Future

KAMPALA, Uganda — There is no doubt that the worst can happen in Africa — collapse, chaos and interracial war.

There is a good chance that it won't, perhaps better than an even chance that it won't.

HERE IS A turbulent continent spanning one-fourth of the surface of the earth on which 200 million Africans in 37 newly-created states — one-third of the entire U. N.—have won control of their own destiny in 10 nerve-wracking years.

Only the Africans can decide what will happen, but they cannot decide entirely by themselves. The good will, patience and sustained economic aid from the West are essential to bridge the gap between sudden failure and gradual success.

I come down on the side of a good deal of hope for Africa's future. I do so after continuous and candid contact with economic experts and political leaders from 21 African nations met here in Uganda under the sponsorship of the Council on World Tensions to look realistically at the problems of African economic development.

THEY BELIEVE it can be done and that a real beginning is being made.

They believe it can be done because this continent's resources — human, land and water—are vast and various, mostly untapped and unexplored.

They believe it can be done because there is an intense, passionate and tenacious will here among the African leaders and people to make their independence productive of a better life too long denied them.

The gross national product of the entire continent of Africa is at the highest point in its history.

Most of the African nations have been on their own from two to eight years. During this period since independence, the gross national product — the sum total of goods and services produced—has been going up. This is an African achievement, not just a colonial achievement. This is a post-independence achievement and can fairly be said to be the fruit of independence.

IF THIS KEEPS UP, we can see in the making the Africa of great promise, not the Africa of terrible calamity.

Take Africa's human resources. There is a shortage of trained skills and trained talent, but there is no shortage of potential capacity.

Castro To Claim Big Sugar Victory

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Through the iron-handed imposition of large-scale forced labor, Fidel Castro is about set to credit his Communist regime with scoring "a great victory in the economic battle."

The beefy, bearded dictator will claim a Cuban sugar crop of some five million tons — approximately 1.5 million above last year's dismal showing.

WHILE CASTRO can be expected to make a great propaganda ado about this "victory," it's far less rosy than he will picture it. On two crucial counts, it's largely a hollow triumph:

1. It is at least 500,000 tons less than the goal set by Castro early this year, when he declared Cuba needs 5.5 million tons to meet its foreign obligations — chiefly Soviet bloc.

2. World price of sugar is about one-fifth of what it was last year—under 2.5 cents a pound instead of 10.8 cents.

THUS, NOT ONLY will the Red Cuban regime have 500,000 tons less sugar to sell than it desperately needs to keep economically solvent, but will get considerably less for what it does sell. That is, Castro will have to sell a lot more sugar to net as much as he did last year on the world market.

In other words, despite the sizable crop increase, he's caught in a bind. It will take virtually all the additional 1.5 million tons to enable the bombastic Cuban dictator to break even with last year's sales of a record-low crop.

That 3.6-million-ton output was the smallest in more than a decade. It was around three million less than the 6.7 million tons produced in 1961, last crop under private enterprise.

AFTER CASTRO came to power, Cuban sugar output plummeted each successive year, as follows: 1962, 4,815,000 tons; 1963, 3,821,000 tons; 1964, 3,600,000 (estimated).

This abysmal Communist record is being tortuously reversed this year through the bald use of widespread forced labor.

Tens of thousands of men, women and teen-agers have been literally forced to go into the fields to chop and haul cane to the sugar mills. Factories, shops, offices and scores of schools and colleges have been shut down as part of this iron-handed totalitarianism.

EVEN HOUSEWIVES have been corralled and hauled into the fields to help the harvesting work. In effect, all of Cuba has been converted into a slave labor camp.

As is characteristic of Communist tactics, this has been perpetrated under the propaganda guise of "volunteers."

But failure to "volunteer" draws instant harsh penalties —loss of jobs, ration cards, expulsion from school and from any hope for further education, and the strong likelihood of arrest and imprisonment on charges of being an "enemy of the people."

GRAPHICALLY illustrative of the manner in which this drastic forced labor system is operating are the following announcements in official broadcasts the past few days:

"Thousands of workers of Las Villas Province are streaming to places where cane cutters are most needed as part of the mobilization in honor of Peasant's Day. The Central Army will also help. It will be represented by the 'Fight Against Bandits' contingent, which will cut cane in the Jaguajay area."

"Arnaldo Milian, secretary general of Las Villas Province, announced that 100,000 voluntary workers will be mobilized to declare the province free of sugar cane."

"Juan Taquechel, secretary general of the Oriente Province Communist Party, stated that another combat mobilization of the labor unions will be held to provide more cane cutters. The mobilization will leave tomorrow afternoon for the northern coast to be part of the Maximo Gomez division, which will be made up of five battalions of macheteros."

ONE URGENT and still-unfilled need is trucks to haul cane to the mills. Under a new trade agreement with the Soviet bloc, more transport vehicles have been promised. In the meanwhile Castro is buying buses from Britain, Canada and France with the foreign currency he made from last year's high-priced sugar.

Last week the East German freighter Karl Marx Stadt arrived in Havana with 21 British buses. This makes a total of 368 such buses now in Cuba.

It's Time Again For Pause To Honor Nation's Heroes

Sunday, May 30, is Memorial Day. We pay tribute to those who gave their lives so that freedom and justice might survive.

In San Rafael, the ceremony will have special significance because it will mark the passing of an era.

The John H. Harris Camp of United Spanish War Veterans will bow out of existence, after 60 years in San Rafael.

The Spanish War Veterans opened their San Rafael headquarters in 1905. Membership, which once numbered 150, has gradually dwindled through the years.

Today, the John Harris Camp is represented by its commander and lone survivor, Edward L. Keber of San Rafael.

The old soldier plans to march himself up to the courthouse steps on Memorial Day for one final salute before bowing the Harris Camp out of the picture as an active organization.

"For those who care to listen I shall render an appropriate swan song at the soldier's monument," Keber promised.

Thus, another gallant group will fade from the scene, giving way to the younger to pick up the baton and carry it forward.

Memorial Day observance dates back to 1868, 97 years ago, when a holiday was proclaimed to pay homage to those who laid down their lives in the Civil War.

Since then, the occasion has taken on broader significance, becoming a day to honor all heroes of wars in which our nation fought.

Throughout the country, there will be oratory and ceremony.

Here in Marin, we pause briefly to remember past heroes who have gone before us, to honor old soldiers like Edward Keber, who provided the link between the 19th and the 20th Centuries, and to pray for the young who are being called on now to fight for freedom and decency both here and abroad.

Our country has grown great because people from every corner of the world, every race and creed toiled together to strive for a common goal.

As we honor the fallen heroes, we re-dedicate ourselves to the principles for which they fought and fell.

Federalists Work On Diabolical Plan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The harmless looking picture of Reed School District pupils holding United Nations flags given by World Federalists brings into focus one of the most serious problems this country faces today. In this picture there is an element of subterfuge because the World Federalists were presenting the flags, not the United Nations.

We must admire the zeal and tenacity, but not the aim, of the World Federalists in attempting to promote a one-world government using the United Nations as a vehicle.

It must be confusing to the young mind seeing the two flags, knowing now, or shortly in the future, that one cannot serve two masters.

If this diabolical plan should ever become a fact, the freedoms gained over 200 years of struggle would be lost overnight.

County Assessor Deserves Support

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Isn't it time for more of us to take a realistic view of the job that Bert Broemmel is doing as our county assessor? The only function that he and his staff actually perform is that of recording the present value of real property. In this county, where property values have been rising consistently and at times spectacularly in recent years, his unfortunate task (from the standpoint of many taxpayers) has been to record this increased property evaluation in order to obtain a fair division of the property tax load throughout the county.

It is interesting to note that the only significant discrepancies that have been found in his assessments in recent years, when checked by independent surveys as well as by the mandatory review of the State Board of Equalization, has been that some of the assessment levels have been below their market value.

Some people have even gone so far as to recommend that the regular reappraisals be stopped, not realizing that this would only benefit the owners of the property which increases most in value, namely bare land, since the value of homes and buildings increases little if any after completion. Since I am interested in the lowest possible tax rate for all property owners and for fair distribution of the tax burden I should like to join the many who support our assessor and actually encourage him to do a better and more thorough job even than he is doing now.

Seminarians Need To Listen More

Editor, Independent-Journal:

According to report a divinity student at the Seminary has adopted the pen-name "Balaam's Ass" to crusade against what he considers the "far-out" theology being taught in San Anselmo. Like Balaam's Ass, Dr. Robert Cleath, with impeccable educational credentials, is unwilling to take a single step forward against the will of God.

In due season it is prayed the many congregations which contribute funds and scholarships to educate so-called ministers of the Gospel of Christ will, like Balaam, have the good judgment to listen to the wisdom of "Balaam's Ass."

Some of us who no longer participate with the Presbyterian Church for many of the same reasons as given by Dr. Cleath for his opposition, have had the impression the Seminarians, theologically speaking, do not at this time know the Ass from third base.

THE WONDERS OF YOUR HEART

Your heart keeps beating about 72 times a minute or approximately 4,320 ttimes an hour. Every 24 hours it beats 103,680 times and in one year in the neighborhood of 37,843,200 times.

At this rate, by the time you reach the age of 65, your heart has beat about two and one-half billion times!

Even though your heart rests for only a fraction of a second between beats, it pumps about 340 gallons of blood throughout your body each hour.

How seldom we reflect on the wonders of creation within our bodies.

Millions travel the world over to seek out marvels, yet never really appreciate the miracle of their own divinely created body.

How great should be our reverence for the handiwork of God in the whole of nature. From the wonder of our heart we can be led to worship and thank the invisible God Who made it and sustains it every moment of every day.

"You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him rule over the works of Your hands." (Psalm 8:6-7)

Thanks to you, O my God, for all the blessings You have entrusted to me.

Rumor Has Behr In Line For Judgeship But Idea Unlikely

By WAT TAKESHITA

IS SUPERVISOR chairman Peter H. Behr in contention for judgeship?

It's rather unlikely, but that's the rumor that's been making the rounds. We can't pinpoint just how the rumor was started, and whether or not it has any substance.

Takeshita

Behr is no doubt a good man, but he is also a good Republican. Doesn't seem logical that Governor Brown would pass up good Democrats like Municipal Judges Joseph Wilson and Leonard Thomas, or Alvin Goldstein and Hadden Roth to pick a Republican.

If Judge Wilson or Judge Thomas is moved up to succeed retiring Judge N. Charles Brusatori, then an opening will be created in municipal court. Favorites to fill that spot are reported to be Goldstein and Roth, in that order.

NO ONE KNOWS for sure whether the Legislature will wind up on schedule—June 18. But there's a note of optimism now that the session will not be quite as long as expected early in the season.

Many of the lawmakers think they'll be out of Sacramento on June 18. The more pessimistic figure they'll have to stay an extra two weeks, or take a short vacation and come back for a special session after July.

DESPITE SOME rumors to the contrary Governor Brown will run for another term next year.

And the man who will no doubt run his campaign again will be Don L. Bradley of Ross. Don and his wife, Sue, will be operating out of Southern California during the 1966 campaign, because the Southland is where the heavy votes are.

But that will be only during the political campaign. They consider Marin their permanent home and will be returning when the 1966 wars are over.

GEORGE McCABE of Sonoma State College, who lost to Congressman Don Clausen last November, is urging all good Democrats, who have the "capability and the electability," to toss in their hats.

"There are Democrats in the district possessed of these attributes in better measure than I," says McCabe. "But if they won't run, I will!" McCabe sounds very much like a man who is going to try again.

BY THE WAY, Roger Garety's superb portrayal of a drunk in the latest Ross Valley Players production, had nothing to do with his appointment to the Alcoholic Beverage Control appeals board.

Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch may get some opposition next year from the county counsel of Santa Clara County. He is Spencer Williams, 43, a Republican who seems genuinely interested in running for the job.

New Name Needed For 'Seniors'; Right Name Need for Sgt. Zink

IT WAS THE WEEK of the sandpiper eggs, the senior citizens and "Sgt. Ted Kink."

This business of "senior citizens" is most interesting. What is one? At what year does one become one? What flack invented the term? Citizens are citizens or people, aren't they?

We were overwhelmed, as usual, meeting Mrs. Walter Washbourne outside the city council chambers in Sausalito —meeting the townsmen meeting the townsmen—wearing a bright red ribbon in her gray hair.

THIS SPARKLING - EYED woman attends the meeting as liaison for the woman's club. However, sometimes she sneaks out at 11:30 p.m. Meetings go at least to midnight. Asked about her husband, former city gardener, she replied, "Oh, he's fine. He works a full day every day starting at 20 to 5 in the morning. And he's 81."

In passing the time Mrs. Washbourne told us of a San Rafael cat rescue. She said a friend, John Prescott, who has a terrible fear of heights, learned that the cat of his 12-year-old was crying because the cat was stuck in a tall tree with no branches.

With no help in sight, Prescott, about 50, said he would try. "But," he warned a clan of small children on the ground, "if anybody speaks I may fall and break a leg, or kitty may fall. I don't want a sound." There was no sound. Prescott shinnied up the tree, put a rope around the cat's stomach and the cat put its paws on his shoulders and Prescott shinnied back down.

RETURNING TO older citizens, the father-in-law of the humming bird man of the mountain, Joe Wilson, died the other day. Joe, who lives in Mill Valley, said he was his father-in-law, was 90, and worked up to 83 "cruising timber" in Idaho.

John Thomson of Marin City, who was one of the 25 old-timers to attend a party last week, impressed on us the fact that more and more old people are continuing to work and "do things," he being one. We advised we want to live to be 90 and, if there are any names, to please not use "senior citizen" but, rather, "He's a jaunty old duck."

Barrister Selma Barnett advises she and Betty Callaghan represent the total picture in female lawyers in Mill Valley, and one-half the total number of attorneys in that city.

WE MET THE SONS of Joe Penders the other day—Lt. Joe and Ensign Tom—both Navy men and home on leave on the street of the good view.

Joe is in anti-submarine warfare work and Tom is learning to fly in Florida. Tom said he and other men were recently left in a Florida jungle with but a knife, some iodine and salt pills, a blanket and cooking can.

For dinner they caught poisonous snakes and flying squirrels and cooked them in water salted with pills. For salad they ate grass, which Tom said is "very nourishing," and palmetto leaves, which give you energy.

Jim Norton praised the community relations committee for its report made Monday to the Mill Valley school board as did chairman of the board Bill Clark.

LATER IN THE meeting it was reported that two Negroes and one Japanese teacher have been hired for this fall. At this point Kenneth Pratt congratulated the board for bringing Mill Valley "out of the cellar" regarding minority teachers.

Pratt said, "We have been at zero." He added that, of 1,000 teachers in Marin County, there are six Negroes, six Orientals. Six teach at San Jose School District, three in Sausalito, and Reed, and one in Ross and San Rafael.

The rugged fishermen of Sausalito are tender-hearted guys over sandpipers. According to fireman Swede Pedersen, they have been guarding a nest of three piper eggs in a field near Lefty Sturiale's Fish Co.

For six weeks they watched. Then, during the Tuesday fire, a fireman driving a truck almost squashed the whole production. Rusty Romera saved the nest at the last moment.

SGT. TED ZINK of the Sausalito police bemoaned the other day in a kindly fashion, "What's the matter with your proofreaders?" We said, what do you mean? He said, "Yesterday my name came out in the paper as Ted Kink."

What can you say?

ART BUCHWALD

Kennedy Home Is No Place To Be Judge For Pet Show

WASHINGTON—The Northwest Settlement House in Washington, D.C., held a charity pet show at Hickory Hill, the home of Sen. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, and as luck would have it I happened to be one of the judges.

Judging a pet show can be a very difficult proposition under any circumstances, but judging one at the home of the Kennedys can be almost impossible. It is no secret the Kennedys like to win at anything they compete in and a pet show is no exception.

WHEN I FIRST arrived, Ethel Kennedy said she didn't want to do anything to influence my judging, but she introduced me to each one of her children "just so you will know who they are."

There were about 500 children, including my own, competing for nine classes of prizes, and each mother kept a beady eye on me as I tried to judge the winners.

The first category gave us no trouble because it had to do with cats and the Kennedys had failed to enter it.

BUT I KNEW I was in trouble with the second class, which was feathered birds. One of the Kennedy children had entered two birds in this class and, when he only won second prize, a look of horror appeared on Ethel Kennedy's face. I shrugged my shoulders and tried not to look at her.

The next class was fish and the first prize went to the person with largest fish. Bobby Kennedy Jr. had gone to his pond and brought back a trout, which put everyone else's goldfish to shame.

I had no choice but to give him a blue ribbon. Many of the mothers started muttering and we were forced to make an announcement: "The judges would appreciate it if Mrs. Kennedy did not applaud so loudly when one of her children wins a prize."

IN THE TRICK class the oldest of the Kennedy children, Joe Kennedy, produced a giant Newfoundland named Brumis. Brumis's tricks consisted of attacking other dogs, children and adults, and Mrs. Rowland Evans, the chairman of the pet show, ordered him out of the ring. Joe Kennedy and Ethel Kennedy were in tears.

Then we got to the most unusual pet class. This was a tough one, because one of the Kennedy children brought in either a large lizard or a small alligator. My 8-year-old daughter had entered a hamster and I was in a tough spot. Mrs. Kennedy kept tugging my arm and my daughter kept tugging my shirt. I decided that there was a tie for first place—the Kennedy child for the most unusual pet and my daughter was given first prize for "the most unusual hamster entered by a child whose father was a judge."

This didn't go over very well with the other mothers, nor with the fathers who were there. Teddy Kennedy wanted to know why his kid didn't get a prize for her goldfish and Mrs. Stephen Smith, sister of Teddy, insisted her son's snake had been discriminated against. I gave them each honorable mentions.

THE DOG CLASS gave me the most trouble.

For one thing, Mrs. Kennedy sent Brumis back into the ring, and he had to be thrown out again. For another, almost every child there had a dog, including my own son's bassett hound. I pretended I didn't know who my son was and gave him a blue ribbon for having the dog with the longest nose, and then I gave Sargent Shriver's daughter a blue ribbon for best pair of dogs in the show.

This made Mrs. Donald Wilson, wife of the deputy director of the USIA, furious, and she threatened to report me to the Westminster Kennel Club. Mrs. Shriver said that if Mrs. Wilson did she would put in a good word for me.

THE KENNEDYS, the Shrivers and the Smith children walked off with about 20 blue ribbons, and five Secret Service men had to escort me off the grounds through a crowd of lynch-minded mothers. But it could have been worse. Lyndon Johnson could have entered his beagle, and then I really would have been in a fix.

Here Is Some Background On Bonds With No 'Con' Attempt

FUSSELMAN

THIS COLUMN and the one next week will be addressed to those voters, who are not sure how they wish to vote on the bond issue to be offered at the June 8 special election, and also to those who think they will vote against it. My comments will be based on a most intimate knowledge of the whole situation. There will be no attempt to "CON" you.

IMMEDIATELY after accepting the assignment as co-chairman of the committee, Fred Enemark telephoned me and said that he had accepted because he thoroughly believed in the proposition I had been urging for many years that large expenditures such as this should be submitted to the people for a vote. He said I was the first person he had asked to join in the presentation. I told him I thought it would be better that I did not take part, for two reasons: (1) that so many people knew of my position in 1960 respecting the whole Civic Center project and would consider me somewhat of a hypocrite, and (2) that this would in turn have a detrimental effect on the thinking of folks which wouldn't be fair to the issue. No one has asked me to take part since then.

I HAVE BECOME convinced, however, that I should talk to you about the problem, so please believe in my sincerity in what I will have to say.

IN HIS EDITORIAL last Saturday, my friend Jack Craemer said, among many things, "NOT TOO MANY YEARS ago, the Board of Supervisors served up a couple of rather hastily contrived bond issues, including one for a civic center. Those ballot measures suffered crushing defeats. (There were some who thought that was what the then Supervisors intended.) There was little or no organized effort to get those earlier measures passed. They were doomed to defeat because of the absence of organized support."

THIS IS WHAT the situation was: The Board was preparing to start building on the Court House site, the necessary additions to meet the growing need for space. That particular plan would have cost $1,500,000 as a starter. Well, the then secretary of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, together with other officials, came in with a plan and drawings for a civic center opposite Albert's Field in San Rafael. This would have caused the eviction of about 140 families and furthermore the land was not suitable for heavy structures. This resulted in a running debate—Civic Center or Court House addition. The Board then considered putting something on the ballot to get an expression of opinion from the voters (an advisory vote such as San Francisco does, under its charter) not a bond issue at the moment. We submitted it to Dist. Atty. Richard M. Sims Jr., who is now a member of the State Appellate Court of California. He advised us that this type of submission would probably invalidate the entire election.

I SUGGESTED, then that we submit two bond issues, with no thought of getting a two-thirds majority, which is required for passage, but to get a sampling of the people's desire—Court House or Civic Center. I was up for election and bought radio time for a half hour discussion of this each Sunday morning over KTIM. The result — far more people voted for the Court House extension than voted for a Civic Center—and more people voted against a Civic Center (3 to 1) than voted against the Court House and site.

THE VOICE OF the people had been heard but was not heeded. Then 140 acres, the present Civic Center site, was subsequently purchased — 80 acres with pari-mutual funds—the balance with local tax money and the present building was constructed and occupied.

NEXT FRIDAY I will discuss the financial situation and make a recommendation.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

New Name Needed For 'Seniors'; Right Name Need for Sgt. Zink

IT WAS THE WEEK of the sandpiper eggs, the senior citizens and "Sgt. Ted Kink."

This business of "senior citizens" is most interesting. What is one? At what year does one become one? What flack invented the term? Citizens are citizens or people, aren't they?

We were overwhelmed, as usual, meeting Mrs. Walter Washbourne outside the city council chambers in Sausalito —meeting the townsmen meeting the townsmen—wearing a bright red ribbon in her gray hair.

THIS SPARKLING - EYED woman attends the meeting as liaison for the woman's club. However, sometimes she sneaks out at 11:30 p.m. Meetings go at least to midnight. Asked about her husband, former city gardener, she replied, "Oh, he's fine. He works a full day every day starting at 20 to 5 in the morning. And he's 81."

In passing the time Mrs. Washbourne told us of a San Rafael cat rescue. She said a friend, John Prescott, who has a terrible fear of heights, learned that the cat of his 12-year-old was crying because the cat was stuck in a tall tree with no branches.

With no help in sight, Prescott, about 50, said he would try. "But," he warned a clan of small children on the ground, "if anybody speaks I may fall and break a leg, or kitty may fall. I don't want a sound." There was no sound. Prescott shinnied up the tree, put a rope around the cat's stomach and the cat put its paws on his shoulders and Prescott shinnied back down.

RETURNING TO older citizens, the father-in-law of the humming bird man of the mountain, Joe Wilson, died the other day. Joe, who lives in Mill Valley, said he was his father-in-law, was 90, and worked up to 83 "cruising timber" in Idaho.

John Thomson of Marin City, who was one of the 25 old-timers to attend a party last week, impressed on us the fact that more and more old people are continuing to work and "do things," he being one. We advised we want to live to be 90 and, if there are any names, to please not use "senior citizen" but, rather, "He's a jaunty old duck."

Barrister Selma Barnett advises she and Betty Callaghan represent the total picture in female lawyers in Mill Valley, and one-half the total number of attorneys in that city.

WE MET THE SONS of Joe Penders the other day—Lt. Joe and Ensign Tom—both Navy men and home on leave on the street of the good view.

Joe is in anti-submarine warfare work and Tom is learning to fly in Florida. Tom said he and other men were recently left in a Florida jungle with but a knife, some iodine and salt pills, a blanket and cooking can.

For dinner they caught poisonous snakes and flying squirrels and cooked them in water salted with pills. For salad they ate grass, which Tom said is "very nourishing," and palmetto leaves, which give you energy.

Jim Norton praised the community relations committee for its report made Monday to the Mill Valley school board as did chairman of the board Bill Clark.

LATER IN THE meeting it was reported that two Negroes and one Japanese teacher have been hired for this fall. At this point Kenneth Pratt congratulated the board for bringing Mill Valley "out of the cellar" regarding minority teachers.

Pratt said, "We have been at zero." He added that, of 1,000 teachers in Marin County, there are six Negroes, six Orientals. Six teach at San Jose School District, three in Sausalito, and Reed, and one in Ross and San Rafael.

The rugged fishermen of Sausalito are tender-hearted guys over sandpipers. According to fireman Swede Pedersen, they have been guarding a nest of three piper eggs in a field near Lefty Sturiale's Fish Co.

For six weeks they watched. Then, during the Tuesday fire, a fireman driving a truck almost squashed the whole production. Rusty Romera saved the nest at the last moment.

SGT. TED ZINK of the Sausalito police bemoaned the other day in a kindly fashion, "What's the matter with your proofreaders?" We said, what do you mean? He said, "Yesterday my name came out in the paper as Ted Kink."

What can you say?

Kennedy Home Is No Place To Be Judge For Pet Show

WASHINGTON—The Northwest Settlement House in Washington, D.C., held a charity pet show at Hickory Hill, the home of Sen. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, and as luck would have it I happened to be one of the judges.

Judging a pet show can be a very difficult proposition under any circumstances, but judging one at the home of the Kennedys can be almost impossible. It is no secret the Kennedys like to win at anything they compete in and a pet show is no exception.

WHEN I FIRST arrived, Ethel Kennedy said she didn't want to do anything to influence my judging, but she introduced me to each one of her children "just so you will know who they are."

There were about 500 children, including my own, competing for nine classes of prizes, and each mother kept a beady eye on me as I tried to judge the winners.

The first category gave us no trouble because it had to do with cats and the Kennedys had failed to enter it.

BUT I KNEW I was in trouble with the second class, which was feathered birds. One of the Kennedy children had entered two birds in this class and, when he only won second prize, a look of horror appeared on Ethel Kennedy's face. I shrugged my shoulders and tried not to look at her.

The next class was fish and the first prize went to the person with largest fish. Bobby Kennedy Jr. had gone to his pond and brought back a trout, which put everyone else's goldfish to shame.

I had no choice but to give him a blue ribbon. Many of the mothers started muttering and we were forced to make an announcement: "The judges would appreciate it if Mrs. Kennedy did not applaud so loudly when one of her children wins a prize."

IN THE TRICK class the oldest of the Kennedy children, Joe Kennedy, produced a giant Newfoundland named Brumis. Brumis's tricks consisted of attacking other dogs, children and adults, and Mrs. Rowland Evans, the chairman of the pet show, ordered him out of the ring. Joe Kennedy and Ethel Kennedy were in tears.

Then we got to the most unusual pet class. This was a tough one, because one of the Kennedy children brought in either a large lizard or a small alligator. Clothing, Gas Price Increases Boost Cost Of Living For U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Food, clothing and gasoline led a wave of price increases that boosted living costs three-tenths of one per cent last month, the government reported yesterday.

It was the biggest April jump in five years and pushed the consumer price index on its ever upward trend to a high of 109.3.

The index shows it took $10.93 to buy goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period — thus chipping another 3 cents from the purchasing power of a $10 bill.

"It's a little out of balance, but not tremendously," said Deputy Asst. Commissioner Sidney A. Jaffe of the Bureau of Labor Statistics in describing the April rise.

Combined with sharp cutbacks in overtime work, the price increases slashed 1.5 per cent from the purchasing power of some 13 million factory workers' earnings. Their weekly pay after taxes dropped $1.25 to $95.12 for those with three dependents and $87.50 for single workers.

Jaffe said it is too early to tell whether the April rise indicates any inflationary trend. The bureau considers a yearly price rise of 1.2 per cent noninflationary, while the April index was up 1.4 per cent over a year earlier.

Jaffe said food prices can change quickly and lower prices could bring down the over-all index in coming months.

He predicted that over-all May prices will reflect another slight increase.

Fresh fruits and vegetables led food price increases, but Jaffe said there is no evidence blaming higher wages imposed by the Labor Department in its drive to replace foreign workers with U.S. farm laborers.

Medical costs, the highest and fastest rising item on the index, edged up two-tenths of 1 per cent.

Housing was the only major item that did not go up. A slight rise in rents was balanced off by declines in fuel and utility costs.

Jaffe said about one-half of the 1.4 per cent price increase over the year was in services, such as medical care and household services.

Clothing, Gas Price Increases Boost Cost Of Living For U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Food, clothing and gasoline led a wave of price increases that boosted living costs three-tenths of one per cent last month, the government reported yesterday.

It was the biggest April jump in five years and pushed the consumer price index on its ever upward trend to a high of 109.3.

The index shows it took $10.93 to buy goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period — thus chipping another 3 cents from the purchasing power of a $10 bill.

"It's a little out of balance, but not tremendously," said Deputy Asst. Commissioner Sidney A. Jaffe of the Bureau of Labor Statistics in describing the April rise.

Combined with sharp cutbacks in overtime work, the price increases slashed 1.5 per cent from the purchasing power of some 13 million factory workers' earnings. Their weekly pay after taxes dropped $1.25 to $95.12 for those with three dependents and $87.50 for single workers.

Jaffe said it is too early to tell whether the April rise indicates any inflationary trend. The bureau considers a yearly price rise of 1.2 per cent noninflationary, while the April index was up 1.4 per cent over a year earlier.

Jaffe said food prices can change quickly and lower prices could bring down the over-all index in coming months.

He predicted that over-all May prices will reflect another slight increase.

Fresh fruits and vegetables led food price increases, but Jaffe said there is no evidence blaming higher wages imposed by the Labor Department in its drive to replace foreign workers with U.S. farm laborers.

Medical costs, the highest and fastest rising item on the index, edged up two-tenths of 1 per cent.

Housing was the only major item that did not go up. A slight rise in rents was balanced off by declines in fuel and utility costs.

Jaffe said about one-half of the 1.4 per cent price increase over the year was in services, such as medical care and household services.

Market Closes Higher After Higher Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market today put on a fast finish, closing higher in active trading.

Airlines were upside leaders. United rising about 2, while Eastern, American and Pan American rose a point or better.

IBM ran up 10 points or so, Xerox 5.

Trading was slow at the start and changes narrow but the pace quickened as the session went on.

Chrysler was active and lost a fraction.

Volume of the day was estimated at 4.2 million shares compared with 5.53 million yesterday.

Here was the picture toward the close:

Many Wall Streeters got an early start on the three-day Memorial Day weekend but enough remained to give airlines and selected issues a good whirl.

Gains of about 2 points were made by Trans World Airlines and Delta Airlines. National and Northwest advanced more than a point each. United and Eastern Air Lines added a solid point apiece.

IBM rose more than 5 and Xerox about 3.

General Motors, Sears, Roebuck and Union Carbide gained a point or so each, bolstering the averages. Chrysler looked like the volume leader but was off fractionally. Ford gained a fraction. Most top steelmakers made fractional gains.

Gains of a point or better were made by Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Fedders, Magnavox, Pepsi Cola, Milwaukee Railroad, Dow Chemical, Electronic Associates and Dymo Industries.

Allegiance Pledge Vote At Redwood

The pledge of allegiance is now official at open meetings of the Redwood High School student body.

At such a meeting yesterday, students passed a bill, authored by senior Richard Smith, requiring the pledge to be recited before each of the sessions.

Smith last year refused to recite the pledge in class on grounds that no state law required him to do so.

At that time, Principal Donald Kreps looked into the matter and found that Smith was right. The law, he discovered, called for all teachers to recite the pledge daily but did not require students to join in the recitation.

Smith later said he based his protest on the desire to show that loyalty oaths were not required by law. He insisted he had no objection to the pledge itself.

Last week, in introducing the student bill, Smith said it should be recited at the meetings because "it helps to instill some feeling of patriotism."

Twin Is Due On Stand Again

PASADENA (UPI)— Timothy Nicholson, 22, returns to court Tuesday morning to try to refute a prosecution witness who claimed he offered $10,000 to "get rid" of his twin brother, Todd.

Defense sources indicated Nicholson's testimony would be brief when court resumes after a Memorial Day weekend recess called yesterday by Superior Judge H. Burton Noble.

Final arguments were expected to be concluded following Timothy's testimony and the case should go the jury Wednesday.

Literacy Test Ruled For New York Voting

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — New York state's higher court ruled 4-3 Thursday that a Spanish-speaking Puerto Rican woman had to pass the state literacy test in English to qualify to vote.

Mrs. Martha Cardona, schooled in Puerto Rico and now living in New York City, had contended she should be declared eligible for the ballot by being allowed to take the test in Spanish. The court of appeals upheld a lower court dismissal of her petition.

631 SEEKING 16 TEACHING JOBS

School Head Rehired For $48,500

CHICAGO (UPI) — Benjamin C. Willis, the nation's highest paid public school administrator and one of the most controversial, had a new four-year contract today. Civil rights groups were fuming and promised a long, hot summer.

Willis, 63, was granted the contract to supervise Chicago's massive public school system after a five hour meeting by the board of education last night. He has held the post since 1963.

The new contract continues his annual salary at $48,500 and allows Willis to retain his claim as the third highest public administrator in the nation. Only the president of the United States and the governor of New York are paid more.

The contract also carried a provision that Willis would retire as Chicago school superintendent on his 65th birthday, Dec. 23, 1966. However, a last-minute flurry among board members occurred when Willis read them a letter of acceptance, and said "it is not my intention to remain as superintendent of schools beyond December of 1966."

One school board member immediately called for a reconsideration of the 7-4 vote by which Willis was awarded the contract because his reference to retirement was not unequivocal.

After persistent questioning by board members, Willis assured them he does not plan to serve past his 65th birthday and said "I think you can bank on that."

Marine Radio Unit Is Stolen From Boat

A marine radio unit valued at $375 was stolen late Wednesday or early yesterday from a boat at the San Rafael Marine Repairs shop, Harbor and Canal streets, San Rafael police said today. The radio is owned by George Broden, 915 Lootens Place, San Rafael.

Listed as grand theft in the police report, the theft of a licensed transmitter also is a federal offense.

Students To Refurbish Marin City's Center

About 75 students, most of them in Marin City, will undertake an extensive work project to refurbish the Marin City Community Center.

The project is sponsored by the newly formed student chapter of Congress of Racial Equality, consisting of about 30 youngsters of high school and college ages.

They will start tackling the job with a work party June 5 at 10 a.m., and continue on succeeding Saturdays.

The project includes repairing holes in the wall, painting walls inside and out, repairing floors, weeding, mowing and pruning.

Materials will be provided by the Marin City Community Services District as well as by individuals, reported Douglas J. Quiett, chairman of the Marin Chapter of CORE.

Persons wishing to donate time or materials will notify Quiett at Building S, Apt. 100, Hilarita, Tiburon, or Walter Bremond, director of community relations, at the Marin County Department of Public Social Services.

The group will need some technical assistance from carpenters, painters and plumbers but the primary need is either materials or money to buy them, Bremond said. About $2,500 in materials will be required, he said.

The youths have agreed that it will require about 60 manhours each to get the job done, Bremond said.

The Marin County Housing Authority will provide some of the tools needed, but there still will be a need for garden tools, paint brushes and other tools, Bremond said.

After the work is done, the students plan to expand the use of the center to include arts and crafts, modern dance instruction, drama and charm classes, he reported.

The group is organizing a drive to solicit funds, he said.

Tax Share Corrected

Marin County property owners' share of county expenses will not be reduced by 10.4 per cent in the fiscal 1966 county budget.

A statement that it would was attributed to County Administrator Alan Bruce in a report in yesterday's Independent-Journal of the Radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board."

This was a misinterpretation of figures Bruce gave. He said the increase in cost to taxpayers for next fiscal year would be 10.4 per cent, a smaller increase than the 16 per cent a year ago.

Rosewall, Buchholz Win Peacock Tennis Opener

Ken Rosewall, the plucky little Aussie, came "home" to roost yesterday, and gave his Peacock Gap bosses something to crow about.

Rosewall, who recently signed a contract to represent Peacock as its touring professional, rallied to win his first outing in the Peacock Gap International Pro Tennis Tournament, defeating Luis Ayala of Santiago, Chile, 6-3, 6-3.

A crowd of about 1,000 in the newly-constructed, 3,500 - seat championship stadium also saw Earl "Butch" Buchholz dispose of Mike Davies 6-1, 6-2 and the third-seeded tandem of Pancho Gonzales and Andres Gimeno upset second-seeded Rod Laver-Buchholz 8-6, 7-5 in a thrilling double match.

Play resumed today and large crowds are expected for the Saturday, Sunday and Monday matches starting at 1 p.m. each day. Ticket prices range from $1.25 to $6.50 and may be purchased at the gate.

Tomorrow's schedule calls for top-seeded Laver, ncknamed "The Rocket," to open quest for his third straight singles championship on the pro tour. The left-handed Aussie faces winner of today's Segura-MacKay feature and second seeded Gonsalez meets Buchholz while tomorrow's doubles sends Rosewell - Anderson against Gonsalez-Gimeno.

This is the third stop in a nine-tournament tour for the professionals. Laver won at New York and then Los Angeles before coming to Peacock. After here the pros go to Seattle.

First prize money from the $15,000 purse is worth $3.000 for singles and $1,200 for doubles.

TENNIS, ANYONE?—Independent-Journal artist Jack Lucey was a gallerite at the opening of the $15,000 Peacock Gap International Pro Tennis Tournament yesterday and collected these impressions of the fast-moving action.

Welcome, Fans, To Draperland —A Kaleidoscope Of Sports

Welcome, tennis fans, to Peacock Gap, alias Draperland—or Jerome C. Draper Jr.'s sporting answer to Disneyland.

The site of this weekend's international pro tennis tournament in the past 12 months has grown into what the developers, Draper Companies, lovingly advertise as "a sports oriented community." Not because it's a short ricksha ride just down the road from China Camp, but because on any given day you can find almost as many outdoors activities as are listed in Frank G. Menke's Encyclopedia of Sports.

JERRY DRAPER

In fact there is so much athletic competition out there that if you laid all the trophies end to end you'd have a helluva mess. They'd stretch all the way to Fort Knox for a family reunion.

Since the Draper Companies took over Peacock Gap has zoomed into prominence as a veritable sports hot spot, thanks to Mr. Draper's philosophy that the family that plays together stays together.

Dinnertime discussions in the exclusive homes and condominium apartments that grace the Gap range from lacrosse to rugby, baseball to golf, swimming to tennis, yachting to cricket, touch football, etc. and etc. All those sports are prominent in the Peacock community, and Mr. Draper is considering adding such goodies as crew, curling (curling???) and an artificial ski run.

The Gap also has hosted a concours d'elegance and a Hollywood-celebrity-type golf tournament—not to mention such indoor sports as fashion shows, bridge and liar's dice.

AT LAST report Mr. Draper was rounding up all the rich kids in the neighborhood for Little League polo.

Giants Find Help In Unlikely Places

So far, in what has been a mediocre season for the club, Franks has made a starter out of relief pitcher Bob Shaw, gotten shortstop Dick Schofield in a trade few believed could be made and put pinch-hitter Cap Peterson in left field.

Peterson paid off yesterday with a three-run homer and a single that helped the Giants snap a three-game losing streak by beating the Cincinnati Reds 9-2 at Candlestick Park.

Schofield batted in three runs with a double and single. He also made his first error since coming from the Pittsburgh Pirates last Saturday for shortstop Jose Pagan.

Shaw (3-2) got the call tonight for his fourth start since joining the rotation May 16. The Reds were expected to counter with John Tsitouris (3-3).

"If we can just stay close until July 1 and then get (Orlando) Cepeda back, we'll take off like rockets," says Franks.

Normally, Peterson doesn't start until deep in the season—not until July 1 last year.

"I've never asked to start," said Peterson. "I figure they always play the best men. I hope now I can play some more and get more chances."

The 22-year-old Peterson has stuck with the Giants because of his bat. His average today was .353.

Peterson's 420-foot smash in the fifth came off Jim O'Toole, third of four Reds' pitchers who gave up a total of 16 hits to Giant batters.

Meanwhile, Gaylord Perry held the Reds to three singles and had a no-hitter until two out in the fifth.

Jesus Alou got the Giants started with a bases-empty homer in the first off loser Joe Nuxhall, who hasn't beaten San Francisco in h s last five attempts dating back to 1963.

Schofield's two - run single capped a three-run fourth inning. Since coming to the Giants, Schofield has batted .389.

His only problem afield came Thursday on a bad-hop grounder. His only problem off field has been finding a place to live on the San Francisco Peninsula for his wife and three children.

"A lady showed me a place the other day and she wanted $700 a month," Schofield said. "She must think I'm Willie Mays."

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mr. James Clark Jr., O.B.E., a gentleman farmer of Duns, Scotland, and A. J. Foyt Jr., one of America's most distinguished high school dropouts, will start hub-to-hub in the 49th 500-mile Memorial Day auto race Monday.

It will be a head-on clash of the top men in two fields — Clark, 29, of the world road racing circuit, Foyt, 30, of the U.S. Auto Club's closed courses.

Clark made the Order of the British Empire on the Queen's last birthday honors' list. All Foyt made was a quarter million dollars last year.

Beside them in the first row, earned by posting best speeds in two weekends of record-cracking time trials, will be handsome Dan Gurney, 34, international competitor from Costa Mesa, Calif.

Gurney not only is a strong contender but also is godfather of the three British-American hybrid cars which will lead the 33-car running start about 9 a.m., PDT, Monday.

He promoted the original meeting of Colin Chapman of London, builder of the Lotus chassis, and Ford Motor Co. engineers, who provided a special V-8 engine.

The winner of the half million dollar race has come from the first two rows in four of the last five years. Foyt won from a fifth place start last year and from seventh in 1961.

Winner Rodger Ward, who missed the program this time, started second in 1962 and third in 1960.

Parnelli Jones, who will start fifth or middle of the second row this time, both started and finished in the first spot in 1963. He will sit between two outstanding newcomers Monday — Mario Andretti, native of Italy and now living in Nazareth, Pa., and Billy Foster of Victoria, B.C.

The track's 10-mile qualifying record was bettered by Andretti, Clark and Foyt in the time trials but Foyt got it last at 161.233 m.p.h. Only the Scot and the USAC champion have ever turned laps over 160 at the 2½-mile speedway.

Clark, the 1963 world Grand Prix champion and No. 3 in the standings last year, finished only 33.84 seconds behind Jones in the controversial '63 Indianapolis race. Chapman tried to have Jones flagged off the course for spraying oil but officials refused.

Foyt, driving a supposedly obsolete Offenhauser front-engine roadster, took the lead for the first time at 121 miles and was ahead the rest of the way.

Rodger Ward, the runner-up, was the only one of seven rear-engine Ford drivers who finished in the top 10. Two of them, Eddie Sachs and rookie David MacDonald, were killed in a second lap collision and fire.

This year's race will be complicated by new rules introduced in an attempt to reduce chances of such mishaps as the Sachs-MacDonald tragedy and the Jones pit fire.

Fuel tanks have special liners supposed to keep contents from gushing out in a collision. Pressure refueling has been banned and, to make overloading unproductive, two pit stops will be mandatory.

The drivers shooting at Foyt's race record of 147.35 m.p.h. will include 11 rookies, the most since 12 started in 1958. They average more than 10 years of experience on other tracks, and Andretti has been racing since he was 13 years old, 12 years ago.

Crew Chief Of Month Named At Hamilton

S/Sgt. William Bellis of 1108 Ransome Drive, Raphael Village, was chosen crew chief of the month at Hamilton Air Force Base for May.

A 12-year Air Force veteran, Bellis is a member of the 78th Organization and maintenance Squadron and is chief of the crew of a C-123 propeller-driven cargo plane.

Clay-Liston 'Thing' Headed For Capitol Hill Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston may square off again — on Capitol Hill.

The senior Republican on the potent House Interstate Commerce Committee, Rep. William L. Springer of Illinois, says he can't see how "you can get around calling Liston and Clay" to testify when the committee holds hearings on chairman Oren Harris' bill to create a federal boxing commission.

Harris has promised quick hearings on the bill. It would include authority to forbid accounts of a fight to be carried in interstate commerce — by wire services, radio or television — if the commission found any evidence of collusion, bribery, racketeering or terrorism.

Harris' bill was thrown into the hopper against a backdrop of widespread congressional criticism of heavyweight champion Clay's one-round knockout of Liston Tuesday night in Lewiston, Maine.

Recent years, there have been many calls on Capitol Hill to do something about boxing, but nothing has been done. This time there appears to be a mood that could force action.

Rep. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., strapping son of former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney, said in a statement that the Clay-Liston fight was "another example of the reason that boxing has fallen into such ill repute in this country."

Tunney and Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., had earlier introduced bills to ban monopolistic practices in boxing. The bills have been referred to the House Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Robert Michel, R-Ill., introduced a resolution yesterday to give the Judiciary Committee power to investigate boxing. Michel suggested there be no more heavyweight title fights until the probe is completed.

Harris said his bill could serve as a basis for committee hearings to find out if it is the right approach to the problem or if another might be better.

Springer recalled he asked for an investigation of boxing two months ago "before there's a national scandal." He said he hopes the committee looks at other sports, too.

Another bill, introduced yesterday by Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., would also establish a national boxing commission. It would have powers to fix regulations concerning contract and rematch agreements.

On the Senate side, Democrat Philip A. Hart of Michigan plans to introduce — possibly next week — the 1965 version of his bill to create the office of federal boxing commissioner and provide machinery to investigate controversial fights.

And Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who described the Liston-Clay fight as "the nadir of a sport," said Wednesday he thinks "Congress has both the jurisdiction and the obligation to conduct an investigation."

While the shock wave from the Clay-Liston fight rang bells all over Congress, action was under way in at least four states — New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

In New York, state Senate majority leader Joseph Zaretzki, a Manhattan Democrat, has introduced a bill to outlaw professional boxing in the state. Zaretzki called the Clay-Liston fight a "fiasco," said he watched it with "a feeling of disgust" and added that "the public has to be protected."

In Pennsylvania, state Rep. Thomas E. Sullivan of Allegheny offered a bill to ban boxing in the state. He said the measure had been drawn up Monday — the day before the Clay-Liston fight.

"In the majority of the states we ban animal fights because they are inhuman," he said. "But we allow two men to knock each other's brains out."

In Missouri, state Rep. Patrick J. Hickey of St. Louis obtained unanimous consent Wednesday from the House to introduce a boxing ban bill. "Without a doubt," he said, "the fight definitely has killed boxing until a federal commission is appointed to supervise it."

Sonny Too Dull For 'Fix'—Clay

CHICOPEE, Mass. (AP) — According to heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, Sonny Liston "is too dull and too slow to be a fixer in a fight."

With that, Clay dismissed complaints that the Clay-Liston title bout at Lewiston, Maine, Tuesday night was fixed.

"Besides," he told a press conference yesterday at his pre-fight training camp, "if the fight had been fixed, Liston would have waited more than one round to make it look good."

He said he hit Liston "flush with all of my 206 pounds and they hated to give me credit."

He said, "Television can't show how solid a punch is thrown . . ."

Mentioning Canadian George Chuvalo as a possible opponent, Clay talked about a "white hope" being good for boxing.

"There should be some white heavyweights in Europe as well as in the country who could provide a challenge for me or any heavyweight who becomes a champion.

Since in the last five or six years, all of the title contenders as well as heavyweight champions have been colored, he said he thinks a white contender would be a good draw.

He also said he would like to fight Ernie Terrell, recognized as heavyweight champion by the World Boxing Association, adding:

"I would eat him up."

He doesn't insist on the point though, saying, "I'll fight in this state or any state or any country."

He also would like to see the price scale lowered for the next title bout "so anyone and everyone could buy tickets."

Clay-Liston 'Thing' Headed For Capitol Hill Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston may square off again — on Capitol Hill.

The senior Republican on the potent House Interstate Commerce Committee, Rep. William L. Springer of Illinois, says he can't see how "you can get around calling Liston and Clay" to testify when the committee holds hearings on chairman Oren Harris' bill to create a federal boxing commission.

Harris has promised quick hearings on the bill. It would include authority to forbid accounts of a fight to be carried in interstate commerce — by wire services, radio or television — if the commission found any evidence of collusion, bribery, racketeering or terrorism.

Harris' bill was thrown into the hopper against a backdrop of widespread congressional criticism of heavyweight champion Clay's one-round knockout of Liston Tuesday night in Lewiston, Maine.

Recent years, there have been many calls on Capitol Hill to do something about boxing, but nothing has been done. This time there appears to be a mood that could force action.

Rep. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., strapping son of former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney, said in a statement that the Clay-Liston fight was "another example of the reason that boxing has fallen into such ill repute in this country."

Tunney and Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., had earlier introduced bills to ban monopolistic practices in boxing. The bills have been referred to the House Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Robert Michel, R-Ill., introduced a resolution yesterday to give the Judiciary Committee power to investigate boxing. Michel suggested there be no more heavyweight title fights until the probe is completed.

Harris said his bill could serve as a basis for committee hearings to find out if it is the right approach to the problem or if another might be better.

Springer recalled he asked for an investigation of boxing two months ago "before there's a national scandal." He said he hopes the committee looks at other sports, too.

Another bill, introduced yesterday by Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., would also establish a national boxing commission. It would have powers to fix regulations concerning contract and rematch agreements.

On the Senate side, Democrat Philip A. Hart of Michigan plans to introduce — possibly next week — the 1965 version of his bill to create the office of federal boxing commissioner and provide machinery to investigate controversial fights.

And Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who described the Liston-Clay fight as "the nadir of a sport," said Wednesday he thinks "Congress has both the jurisdiction and the obligation to conduct an investigation."

While the shock wave from the Clay-Liston fight rang bells all over Congress, action was under way in at least four states — New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

In New York, state Senate majority leader Joseph Zaretzki, a Manhattan Democrat, has introduced a bill to outlaw professional boxing in the state. Zaretzki called the Clay-Liston fight a "fiasco," said he watched it with "a feeling of disgust" and added that "the public has to be protected."

In Pennsylvania, state Rep. Thomas E. Sullivan of Alleghenny offered a bill to ban boxing in the state. He said the measure had been drawn up Monday — the day before the Clay-Liston fight.

"In the majority of the states we ban animal fights because they are inhuman," he said. "But we allow two men to knock each other's brains out."

In Missouri, state Rep. Patrick J. Hickey of St. Louis obtained unanimous consent Wednesday from the House to introduce a boxing ban bill. "Without a doubt," he said, "the fight definitely has killed boxing until a federal commission is appointed to supervise it."

Sonny Too Dull For 'Fix'—Clay

CHICOPEE, Mass. (AP) — According to heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, Sonny Liston "is too dull and too slow to be a fixer in a fight."

With that, Clay dismissed complaints that the Clay-Liston title bout at Lewiston, Maine, Tuesday night was fixed.

"Besides," he told a press conference yesterday at his pre-fight training camp, "if the fight had been fixed, Liston would have waited more than one round to make it look good."

He said he hit Liston "flush with all of my 206 pounds and they hated to give me credit."

He said, "Television can't show how solid a punch is thrown . . ."

Mentioning Canadian George Chuvalo as a possible opponent, Clay talked about a "white hope" being good for boxing.

"There should be some white heavyweights in Europe as well as in the country who could provide a challenge for me or any heavyweight who becomes a champion.

Since in the last five or six years, all of the title contenders as well as heavyweight champions have been colored, he said he thinks a white contender would be a good draw.

He also said he would like to fight Ernie Terrell, recognized as heavyweight champion by the World Boxing Association, adding:

"I would eat him up."

He doesn't insist on the point though, saying, "I'll fight in this state or any state or any country."

He also would like to see the price scale lowered for the next title bout "so anyone and everyone could buy tickets."

'Lazz' Leads Marin Prep Stars In North Coast Meet

Independent-Journal Sports

18 Independent-Journal, Friday, May 28, 1965

Marin County's hopes for landing athletes in the California state high school track and field meet start and end with one athlete—Dean Lazzarini.

The Drake High School speedster appears the only Marin prepster with a strong chance to finish in the top four at the North Coast Section track and field championships tomorrow at Santa Rosa's Bailey Field. The meet gets underway at 9:30 a.m. with trial heats in hurdles, dashes and relays. Finals get started at 1 p.m.

Lazzarini has sprinted the 100-yard dash in 9.7 this year and won the North Coast Division 3 century last Saturday with a 9.8 clocking. His strongest competition tomorrow will come from Joe Richards of Watsonville who has a 9.6 to his credit this year. But Richards tied Aragon's Bob Bacon for first in the Division 2 championships last week in a comparatively slow 10 flat. Ernie Boston of Berkeley won the Division 1 100-yard dash at 9.9.

Although Lazzarini is undefeated this season in the 100, he is going to be in really stiff company at the sectionals.

Top four places in each varsity event qualify for the state meet the following Saturday in Bakersfield.

Lazzarini also won the 220 at the divisional meet last week in San Rafael, with a time of 22.6 around a curve. But the times from Division 1 and 2 were on straightaways and much faster. Lee Evans of Overfelt won Division 2 with a speedy 20.8 and Boston won Division 1 with a time of 21.7.

Greg Sparks of Tamalpais High in the mile and pole vaulter Bob Watkinson of Terra Linda were the only other Marin County to winners in the Division 3 meet but will have to score upsets to make it in the top four tomorrow.

Sparks won the mile with a time of 4:27.7 last week. But eight other milers in tomorrow's field did better in the Division 2 and 3 meets. The amazing Mike Ryan of Wilcox High won the Division 2 meet at 4:11.1, and Sherman Carter of Pittsburg won Division 2 in 4:22.5. Ryan holds the meet record in this event, setting it last year as a junior.

Watkinson won the pole vault in San Rafael last week with a height of 12 feet, 6 inches. In the other two divisionals, seven boys went 13 feet or better, topped by Carlmont's Ton White at 14 feet, ¾ inches.

Needless to say, this competition tomorrow is going to be fierce. It will be the last year for such a huge North Coast Section. Next year the section divides into two parts, a truly North Coast Section and a Central Coast Section for the peninsula schools.

Tomorrow's meet is under the sponsorship of the Tamalpais Union High School District, host this year. George Corson, athletic director at Drake and commissioner of the Marin Athletic League, is the meet director, with Drake's Morrie Shepherd, Redwood's Tony Bailey and Tamalpais' Bruce Grant the assistant meet directors.

Other varsity athletes from Marin in the meet are Mike McCauley of Redwood, 880; Ken Soderland of Terra Linda, 880; Darryl Berry of Tam, 440; Ken Blasingame of Tam, 440; Chet Judah of Drake, mile; Doug Manuel of Drake, shot put; Mel Vanderbilt of San Rafael, pole vault; Ray Stark of Tam, high jump, and the Tamalpais 880-yard relay team.

It will be the last meet of the year for the Class B cindermen. Marin County boys entered in Class B events are Bob McLennen of San Rafael, 70-yard hurdles; Gary Stevens of Redwood, 660; Jack Parker of San Rafael, 75; Allen Lee of Tam, 330; Ron Turner of Tam, 120 low hurdles and broad jump; Mal Collier of Tam, 1320; Royce Johnson of Redwood, shot put; Gary Olsen of Novato, discus; Steve Duff of San Rafael, discus; Tom Lobak of Terra Linda, pole vault; Jeff Hicks of Redwood, pole vault, and Larry Stewart of Novato, pole vault and high jump.

Cost for the meet is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and children.

MORE SPORTS TRAIL

Or, if he's too pooped to sloop, there's a beach club for complete relaxation or a fine 18-hole golf course where an eight-to-fiver can sneak in a quick round before the sun creeps slowly over the hills on little caddy's feet. Also, there is available horseback riding, hiking and picnicking in heavily-wooded hills surrounding the Gap.

FROM THE air, Draperland looks like something a rich kid might get for Christmas (yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Venetia). But up close it's for real . . . and a sportrait in greenery it is, brought to you in living color that would make NBC's peacock blush in black and white. The place is so green you half expect to be greeted by C. Douglas Dillon on the first tee (as in treasury).

Located north east of San Rafael proper (first time the county seat has ever been called THAT), Peacock Gap affords residents a viewtiful surrounding. On a clear day (EVERY day is sun day at the Gap) you can see Mt. Tamalpais, portions of San Pablo Bay, the kiln at McNear's Brick Yard and Ernie Heckscher's backyard. The latter is a testimonial to Marin's fine weather; he's the tannest orchestra leader west of Louie Armstrong.

Of late Mr. Draper has added some big names to his Peacock plummage, hiring Billy Casper, Ken Rosewall and Darlene Hard as professionals — and if you don't recognize those names you're lost, ma'am. You'd better turn to page 24.

IT WAS just after he signed the great Aussie, Rosewall, that Mr. Draper, a tennis buff, got the brainstorm for this international pro tourney. And, faster than you can say "lease-a-Peacock-condominium" Draper built a 3,500-seat championship stadium and lured the top 10 tennis pros in the world by plunking down $15,000 in prize money like you and I plunk down 15 cents for a bag of peanuts. He does things big, this dynamic, imaginative 41-year-old Stanford graduate (but don't hold that against him) who has built the Draper Companies into a group of 26 corporations owning more than $100 million in real estate in the last seven years.

How dynamic and imaginative can you get.

ANYWAY, I hope that briefly gives you newcomers to Marin a picture of the Gap. It's easy to find. Just go to San Rafael and follow the signs along San Pablo Avenue. Or, if you're arriving by junk, just pull into China Camp and ask for Grace Quan. She'll tell you where to go.

And if after your visit you still don't think Peacock is the sports capital of Northern California, just think about this:

Prep Champs Tournament Under Way

Redwood Invitational High School Baseball Tournament of Champions, which started this afternoon, continues tonight with two games at San Rafael's Albert Park and winds up tomorrow with a whopping schedule of six games.

Host Redwood of the Marin Athletic League played College Park of the Diablo Valley League at 3:30 this afternoon in the opener. The balance of today's first round sends St. Elizabeth's of the Catholic Athletic League against Samuel Ayers High of the Mt. Hamilton League at 6:30 o'clock and El Camino of the North Peninsula League vs. DeAnza of the Alameda Athletic League at 8:30. Monterey of the Monterey Bay League drew the first round bye.

Tomorrow's games will start at 10 a.m., noon, 2, 4, 6 and 8 p.m.

Each of the teams is champion of its league and the seven this season have compiled a won-lost record of 117-32. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students and 25 cents for children under 12.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Marin Country Club, Match vs. Par: Mrs. William Elliott, plus five; Mrs. Ed Burgar, plus three; Mrs. Norton Dawson, plus two; Mrs. William Wieland, even; Mrs. William Brown, even; Mrs. D. H. Merzario, even; Mrs. George Richardson, even; Mrs. Al McConnell, even.

Vet Bolt Leads Indy Golf Parade

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The race for the $15,700 top money in the $87,500 "500" Festival Open Golf Tournament started like a poor man's parade, with veteran Tommy Bolt in the lead.

Bolt, who took a one-stroke lead over six other hungry contenders by shooting a three-under-par 68 at Greentree Country Club yesterday, could nearly triple his previous take for the season by winning Sunday. His PGA winnings this year total $5,140.

Among the other two-under-par 69 shooters, Claude King is 45th in winnings, Joe Campbell is 54th and Doug Ford is 55th. Art Wall has won only $5,062.50, and Joe Kirkwood Jr., an infrequent tourney contender, is not listed.

'Lazz' Leads Marin Prep Stars In North Coast Meet

Marin County's hopes for landing athletes in the California state high school track and field meet start and end with one athlete—Dean Lazzarini.

The Drake High School speedster appears the only Marin prepster with a strong chance to finish in the top four at the North Coast Section track and field championships tomorrow at Santa Rosa's Bailey Field. The meet gets underway at 9:30 a.m. with trial heats in hurdles, dashes and relays. Finals get started at 1 p.m.

Lazzarini has sprinted the 100-yard dash in 9.7 this year and won the North Coast Division 3 century last Saturday with a 9.8 clocking. His strongest competition tomorrow will come from Joe Richards of Watsonville who has a 9.6 to his credit this year. But Richards tied Aragon's Bob Bacon for first in the Division 2 championships last week in a comparatively slow 10 flat. Ernie Boston of Berkeley won the Division 1 100-yard dash at 9.9.

Although Lazzarini is undefeated this season in the 100, he is going to be in really stiff company at the sectionals.

Top four places in each varsity event qualify for the state meet the following Saturday in Bakersfield.

Lazzarini also won the 220 at the divisional meet last week in San Rafael, with a time of 22.6 around a curve. But the times from Division 1 and 2 were on straightaways and much faster. Lee Evans of Overfelt won Division 2 with a speedy 20.8 and Boston won Division 1 with a time of 21.7.

Greg Sparks of Tamalpais High in the mile and pole vaulter Bob Watkinson of Terra Linda were the only other Marin County to winners in the Division 3 meet but will have to score upsets to make it in the top four tomorrow.

Sparks won the mile with a time of 4:27.7 last week. But eight other milers in tomorrow's field did better in the Division 2 and 3 meets. The amazing Mike Ryan of Wilcox High won the Division 2 meet at 4:11.1, and Sherman Carter of Pittsburg won Division 2 in 4:22.5. Ryan holds the meet record in this event, setting it last year as a junior.

Watkinson won the pole vault in San Rafael last week with a height of 12 feet, 6 inches. In the other two divisionals, seven boys went 13 feet or better, topped by Carlmont's Ton White at 14 feet, ¾ inches.

Needless to say, this competition tomorrow is going to be fierce. It will be the last year for such a huge North Coast Section. Next year the section divides into two parts, a truly North Coast Section and a Central Coast Section for the peninsula schools.

Tomorrow's meet is under the sponsorship of the Tamalpais Union High School District, host this year. George Corson, athletic director at Drake and commissioner of the Marin Athletic League, is the meet director, with Drake's Morrie Shepherd, Redwood's Tony Bailey and Tamalpais' Bruce Grant the assistant meet directors.

Other varsity athletes from Marin in the meet are Mike McCauley of Redwood, 880; Ken Soderland of Terra Linda, 880; Darryl Berry of Tam, 440; Ken Blasingame of Tam, 440; Chet Judah of Drake, mile; Doug Manuel of Drake, shot put; Mel Vanderbilt of San Rafael, pole vault; Ray Stark of Tam, high jump, and the Tamalpais 880-yard relay team.

It will be the last meet of the year for the Class B cindermen. Marin County boys entered in Class B events are Bob McLennen of San Rafael, 70-yard hurdles; Gary Stevens of Redwood, 660; Jack Parker of San Rafael, 75; Allen Lee of Tam, 330; Ron Turner of Tam, 120 low hurdles and broad jump; Mal Collier of Tam, 1320; Royce Johnson of Redwood, shot put; Gary Olsen of Novato, discus; Steve Duff of San Rafael, discus; Tom Lobak of Terra Linda, pole vault; Jeff Hicks of Redwood, pole vault, and Larry Stewart of Novato, pole vault and high jump.

Cost for the meet is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and children.

Or, if he's too pooped to sloop, there's a beach club for complete relaxation or a fine 18-hole golf course where an eight-to-fiver can sneak in a quick round before the sun creeps slowly over the hills on little caddy's feet. Also, there is available horseback riding, hiking and picnicking in heavily-wooded hills surrounding the Gap.

FROM THE air, Draperland looks like something a rich kid might get for Christmas (yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Venetia). But up close it's for real . . . and a sportrait in greenery it is, brought to you in living color that would make NBC's peacock blush in black and white. The place is so green you half expect to be greeted by C. Douglas Dillon on the first tee (as in treasury).

Located north east of San Rafael proper (first time the county seat has ever been called THAT), Peacock Gap affords residents a viewtiful surrounding. On a clear day (EVERY day is sun day at the Gap) you can see Mt. Tamalpais, portions of San Pablo Bay, the kiln at McNear's Brick Yard and Ernie Heckscher's backyard. The latter is a testimonial to Marin's fine weather; he's the tannest orchestra leader west of Louie Armstrong.

Of late Mr. Draper has added some big names to his Peacock plummage, hiring Billy Casper, Ken Rosewall and Darlene Hard as professionals — and if you don't recognize those names you're lost, ma'am. You'd better turn to page 24.

IT WAS just after he signed the great Aussie, Rosewall, that Mr. Draper, a tennis buff, got the brainstorm for this international pro tourney. And, faster than you can say "lease-a-Peacock-condominium" Draper built a 3,500-seat championship stadium and lured the top 10 tennis pros in the world by plunking down $15,000 in prize money like you and I plunk down 15 cents for a bag of peanuts. He does things big, this dynamic, imaginative 41-year-old Stanford graduate (but don't hold that against him) who has built the Draper Companies into a group of 26 corporations owning more than $100 million in real estate in the last seven years.

How dynamic and imaginative can you get.

ANYWAY, I hope that briefly gives you newcomers to Marin a picture of the Gap. It's easy to find. Just go to San Rafael and follow the signs along San Pablo Avenue. Or, if you're arriving by junk, just pull into China Camp and ask for Grace Quan. She'll tell you where to go.

And if after your visit you still don't think Peacock is the sports capital of Northern California, just think about this:

Prep Champs Tournament Under Way

Redwood Invitational High School Baseball Tournament of Champions, which started this afternoon, continues tonight with two games at San Rafael's Albert Park and winds up tomorrow with a whopping schedule of six games.

Host Redwood of the Marin Athletic League played College Park of the Diablo Valley League at 3:30 this afternoon in the opener. The balance of today's first round sends St. Elizabeth's of the Catholic Athletic League against Samuel Ayers High of the Mt. Hamilton League at 6:30 o'clock and El Camino of the North Peninsula League vs. DeAnza of the Alameda Athletic League at 8:30. Monterey of the Monterey Bay League drew the first round bye.

Tomorrow's games will start at 10 a.m., noon, 2, 4, 6 and 8 p.m.

Each of the teams is champion of its league and the seven this season have compiled a won-lost record of 117-32. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students and 25 cents for children under 12.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Marin Country Club, Match vs. Par: Mrs. William Elliott, plus five; Mrs. Ed Burgar, plus three; Mrs. Norton Dawson, plus two; Mrs. William Wieland, even; Mrs. William Brown, even; Mrs. D. H. Merzario, even; Mrs. George Richardson, even; Mrs. Al McConnell, even.

Vet Bolt Leads Indy Golf Parade

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The race for the $15,700 top money in the $87,500 "500" Festival Open Golf Tournament started like a poor man's parade, with veteran Tommy Bolt in the lead.

Bolt, who took a one-stroke lead over six other hungry contenders by shooting a three-under-par 68 at Greentree Country Club yesterday, could nearly triple his previous take for the season by winning Sunday. His PGA winnings this year total $5,140.

Among the other two-under-par 69 shooters, Claude King is 45th in winnings, Joe Campbell is 54th and Doug Ford is 55th. Art Wall has won only $5,062.50, and Joe Kirkwood Jr., an infrequent tourney contender, is not listed.

NEVER TOO YOUNG TO LEARN

Rod Laver, one of the great left-handed tennis players to come out of Australia, points out the correct grip of a racquet to Julie Carlson, 9, of San Rafael. Laver was one of six international tennis pros giving free tips to youngsters at a clinic Wednesday sponsored by the Independent-Journal. Ten top stars are competing in the Peacock Gap International Tennis Tournament which started yesterday. The tourney, with a $15,000 purse, runs through Monday. (Independent-Journal photo)

California Relays Set Tomorrow

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—Jim Ryun, sensational high school miler from Kansas, faces a field of sub-four-minute milers tomorrow night in the 34th annual California Relays.

The race shapes up as the feature of the relay carnival in this central California community where Ryun made a big hit a year ago by finishing third in a crack field.

This time the teen-ager from Wichita, who claims the interscholastic record at 3:58.3, goes against Olympic runnerup Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia and such American veterans as Jim Grelle, Cary Weisiger, John Camien and John Garrison.

A year ago on this Modesto Junior College track, Ryun ran a 4:01.7 behind Tom O'Hara of Chicago's Loyola and former Oregon ace Dyrol Burleson.

As usual the Relays have been sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union which this year precludes entry of runners from NCAA schools because of the continuing feud between the AAU and the NCAA-backed United States Track and Field Federation.

In addition to the club athletes, the meet draws on some top foreigners including Australia's Ron Clarke, holder of four world records from the three-mile through 10,000 meters. Clarke races in a two-mile including Dave Ellis of Canada, Neville Scott from New Zealand and Americans George Young and Ron Larrieu.

A second high school ace, Richmond Flowers Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., has been invited after setting a scholastic record of 13.5 seconds in the 120-meter high hurdles.

Running the regulation hurdles, three inches higher than the prep barriers, he'll face such runners as Blaine Lindgren, Brian Polkinghorne and the Northeast Louisiana duo of Roger Morgan and Roger Mann.

As usual, the California state junior college championships will be run in conjunction with the relays.

Late Trout Season For Corner Of State Will Open Tomorrow

STEVENS

According to the Department of Fish and Game, fishing in the Pardee Reservoir is hot at the present time. Been catching Kokanees up to 12 inches, trolling a small spinner and a worm on a single hook.

You aren't restricted to Kokanee salmon alone at Pardee. Lots of native trout, both large and small mouth black bass as well as white catfish and a red-ear sunfish are being caught.

The Pardee Reservoir Recreation Area is open to fishing and boating from Friday noon, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays only. You can rent a boat or bring your own; you may bring your trailer loaded with the family and spend a mighty pleasant vacation this weekend.

YOU GET TO the Pardee Reservoir spot by taking Highway 26 east from Stockton to Valley Springs and then turning north for about two miles on a county road.

You are reminded that the trout season opens in the northwest corner of California tomorrow. The area opening consists of Del Norte, Humboldt and parts of Trinity, Mendocino and Glenn counties. Reports have it that fishing is good in Ruth Lake and the general area. No report on prospects in the Mad River drainage area, but we assume that other than a bit of rough going, prospects are quite favorable.

IF IT IS A chance for trout nearer home, the following coast waters have been stocked with a new supply of catchable-size rainbows: By counties — ALAMEDA—Alameda Creek; MARIN County—Bon Tempe Reservoir; Lagunitas Reservoir; LAKE County—Anderson Creek, Upper Kelsey Creek, Lower Kelsey Creek; MENDOCINO County—Cleone Lake; MONTEREY County—Upper Arroyo Seco, Lower Arroyo Seco, Upper Nacimiento River, Big Sur River.

NAPA County — Hennessey Lake Improvement; SANTA CLARA County—Stevens Creek Reservoir; SANTA CRUZ County—Corralitos Creek, Fall Creek, San Lorenzo River, San Vicente Creek, Loch Lomond; SAN LUIS OBISPO County—Chorro Reservoir, Lopez Creek, San Simeon Lagoon; SAN MATEO County—Pescadero Creek; SONOMA County—Lake Ralphine, Valley of the Moon Reservoir.

If you haven't made reservations for a place on one of the sport-fishing party boats and have a yen to catch a salmon or three, better get busy and make the reservation. I heard Skipper Dave Kinley of the Evie K announcing that he had netted limits all around. Other skippers seem to be doing nearly as well. Looks like the bigger and better schools of salmon have been located.

CRAPPIES, blue gills and cats are still active in Clear Lake and Berryessa. Some fair to good catches of black bass have also been made.

Sturgeons are still hitting grass shrimp and rumor has it that a goodly number of stripers have been taken in the local bays and ditto the back country, so here's hoping its your time to make a killing. Chow!

Trout Derby On Tap For Mill Valley

Mill Valley youngsters will be able to fish from their back yards June 5 and 6 during the trout derby sponsored by the Mill Valley Optimist Club. Hours are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day and entry blanks may be secured from Optimists at their places of business.

"The main thing about the derby," said Optimist president William Eberhart, "is to permit youngsters of Mill Valley to be able to fish without traveling 200 or 300 miles away."

Ten thousand trout will be placed in Corte Madera and Old Mill creeks. A booth will be set up in Old Mill Park on June 6, judging will be held there at 4 p.m. and winners announced afterwards. Boys and girls under 16 are eligible.

Special Hardtop Races Scheduled

Over at Petaluma Fairgrounds there will be a special 35-lap main event, preceded by a 20-lap semi-main. Qualifying will start at 7 o'clock with the first race scheduled to start at 8:15.

There will be a 50-lap special main event at the Vallejo Speedway, capping a nine-event card. Time trails start at 7:30, with heat racing beginning at 8:30.

Modelcar Raceway To Open June 4

Playland's Modelcar Raceways, Northern California's newest, will have its grand opening June 4 and 5 at the track, 660 Great Highway, in San Francisco.

Top Soccer Game Set Wednesday

The first all-professional soccer match in Northern California sports history will take place next Wednesday in Kezar Stadium in San Francisco at 8:30 p.m.

Billed as an international sports spectacular between England and Germany, the game will pit two of Europe's top-ranking soccer clubs—Nottingham Forest of England and Hannover 96 from Germany.

Annual Pelican Trans-Bay Boat Race Slated June 5

The fourth annual San Francisco Pelican Trans-Bay race will be June 5, when the 12-foot lug-rigged dory-sampans sail across San Francisco Bay from Sausalito to San Francisco and return.

It's a "passage" type race, where the boats make a crossing of an inland arm of the sea, across the Bay and back, from Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito to the San Francisco shore degaussing buoy off Marina Green, and then 8½ miles back. The race will start at 11 a.m. so the Pelicans get the full force of the afternoon wind.

These little boats have been described as "heavy weather dinghies" for they were designed to be capable of crossing the rough waters of the Golden Gate safely. The boats are decked over, unlike most dinghies, and have unusual flare and freeboard.

Some 27 Pelican dinghies set out on their Trans-Bay course last year and 22 of them made it over and back without mishap. But three boats were dismasted when standing rigging carried away in the wind, and two boats were capsized.

The new record was set in the last race by Pelican No. 38, piloted by Don and Fred Smith, brothers from Samish Island, Wash., 2 hours, 10 seconds. The Smith brothers will be back this year to defend their title.

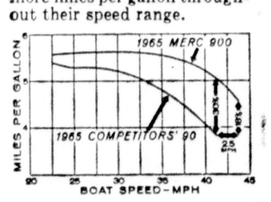
At Lake X, Florida, Mercurys and competitive brands were tested under identical conditions. All Mercs, from 3.9 to 100 horsepower, outran competitive brands of comparable horsepower, yet averaged more miles per gallon throughout their speed range.



For example, Merc 900 gives better fuel mileage than the competitors' 90 at all speeds. With the "other" 90 running at full throttle and the Merc 900 cruising alongside at part throttle, Merc goes 30% farther per gallon of fuel. With both motors running at full throttle, the Merc 900 yields 18% more miles per gallon, although it is running 2.5 mph faster.

- The Merc 900 averages 30% more miles per gallon than the competitors' 75. Furthermore, the Merc 900 can outrun it by 4 mph and still use less fuel.
- The Merc 650 gives more miles per gallon than one of the competitive 60s at all speeds. At the "other" 60's top speed, the Merc 650 shows 38% better fuel mileage.
- At "their" 40's most economical speed, our 50 still gives 18% more fuel mileage. At our most economical speed, the difference increases to 36%.
- Our 35 delivers 9% to 20% more miles per gallon than their 28, depending on boat speed.
- Our 20 ranges from 26% to 87% more miles per gallon than their 18.
- Our 9.8 yields 27% to 64% more miles per gallon than their 9.5 at various boat speeds.
- Our 6 gets 43% to 48% more miles per gallon than their 5½.
- Our 3.9 goes up to 20% farther per gallon than their 3 in the speed range most used by fishermen.

Mercury's emphasis is on fuel economy—not oil economy. Good lubrication spells longevity and survival. Weasel-worded warranties are no substitute for proper lubrication. Save where it's safe, and where the savings are big—on fuel. Your Mercury dealer will show you why Merc gives you more RUN for your money ... 100, 90, 65, 50, 35, 20, 9.8, 6 and 3.9 hp.

California Relays Set Tomorrow

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—Jim Ryun, sensational high school miler from Kansas, faces a field of sub-four-minute milers tomorrow night in the 34th annual California Relays.

The race shapes up as the feature of the relay carnival in this central California community where Ryun made a big hit a year ago by finishing third in a crack field.

This time the teen-ager from Wichita, who claims the interscholastic record at 3:58.3, goes against Olympic runnerup Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia and such American veterans as Jim Grelle, Cary Weisiger, John Camien and John Garrison.

A year ago on this Modesto Junior College track, Ryun ran a 4:01.7 behind Tom O'Hara of Chicago's Loyola and former Oregon ace Dyrol Burleson.

As usual the Relays have been sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union which this year precludes entry of runners from NCAA schools because of the continuing feud between the AAU and the NCAA-backed United States Track and Field Federation.

In addition to the club athletes, the meet draws on some top foreigners including Australia's Ron Clarke, holder of four world records from the three-mile through 10,000 meters. Clarke races in a two-mile including Dave Ellis of Canada, Neville Scott from New Zealand and Americans George Young and Ron Larrieu.

A second high school ace, Richmond Flowers Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., has been invited after setting a scholastic record of 13.5 seconds in the 120-meter high hurdles.

Running the regulation hurdles, three inches higher than the prep barriers, he'll face such runners as Blaine Lindgren, Brian Polkinghorne and the Northeast Louisiana duo of Roger Morgan and Roger Mann.

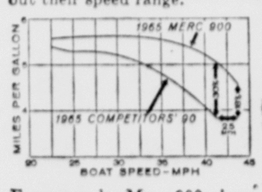
At Lake X, Florida, Mercurys and competitive brands were tested under identical conditions. All Mercs, from 3.9 to 100 horsepower, outran competitive brands of comparable horsepower, yet averaged more miles per gallon throughout their speed range.



For example, Merc 900 gives better fuel mileage than the competitors' 90 at all speeds. With the "other" 90 running at full throttle and the Merc 900 cruising alongside at part throttle, Merc goes 30% farther per gallon of fuel. With both motors running at full throttle, the Merc 900 yields 18% more miles per gallon, although it is running 2.5 mph faster.

• The Merc 900 averages 30% more miles per gallon than the competitors' 75. Furthermore, the Merc 900 can outrun it by 4 mph and still use less fuel.

• The Merc 650 gives more miles per gallon than one of the competitive 60s at all speeds. At the "other" 60's top speed, the Merc 650 shows 38% better fuel mileage.

• At "their" 40's most economical speed, our 50 still gives 18% more fuel mileage. At our most economical speed, the difference increases to 36%.

• Our 35 delivers 9% to 20% more miles per gallon than their 28, depending on boat speed.

• Our 20 ranges from 26% to 87% more miles per gallon than their 18.

• Our 9.8 yields 27% to 64% more miles per gallon than their 9.5 at various boat speeds.

• Our 6 gets 43% to 48% more miles per gallon than their 5½.

• Our 3.9 goes up to 20% farther per gallon than their 3 in the speed range most used by fishermen.

Mercury's emphasis is on fuel economy—not oil economy. Good lubrication spells longevity and survival. Weasel-worded warranties are no substitute for proper lubrication. Save where it's safe, and where the savings are big—on fuel. Your Mercury dealer will show you why Merc gives you more RUN for your money . . . 100, 90, 65, 50, 35, 20, 9.8, 6 and 3.9 hp.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

June, traditionally the month of brides, is almost at hand. In recognition of that fact, your Independent-Journal Marin Magazine this weekend salutes the young women of Marin County who will become brides next month. They will find an entire special section devoted to stories, photographs and advertisements that will assist them in planning their wedding ceremony and in preparing for the start of married life.

This holiday weekend, the I-J supplement marks Memorial Day with a feature article about one of the least known, yet one of the largest, of our veterans' organizations. The story deals with the Veterans of World War I, and specifically with Marin Barracks No. 550 of that organization. Some of the men who fought "the war to make the world safe for democracy" will recall that strife of nearly half a century ago.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

Irish poet Thomas Moore was born on this day in 1779.

On this day in history:

In 1864, Archduke Maximilian landed at Vera Cruz to assume the throne of Emperor of Mexico. He was the brother of Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria-Hungary.

In 1905, the Russian fleet was defeated by the Japanese navy. The victory sealed Russia's ultimate loss in the Russo-Japanese war.

In 1934, the Dionne quintuplets were born near Callender, Ontario.

In 1940, the evacuation of British and French forces from Dunkerquen France started.

A thought for the day—President Thomas Jefferson said: "The republic is the only form of government which is not eternally at open or secret war with the rights of mankind."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Declarer Makes A Slam By Leaving Trump Out

"You are very polite and patient," a kibitzer told me recently at a tournament (much to my surprise). "Your partner just threw a trick away, and you congratulated him for his beautiful play."

Opening lead — ♡ 9

My partner won the first trick with the jack of hearts and continued with the ace of hearts. Then he abandoned trumps, leaving one trump still in the East hand.

TOP CLUBS

Declarer took dummy's top clubs and led the low club toward his hand. East pounced on this trick with his small trump, and my kibitzer snorted with disgust.

These new players couldn't even count trumps!

RUFFS DIAMOND

The kibitzer's compliment was undeserved, because my politeness was with the kibitzer, not with my partner. South did not throw a trick away by leaving a trump out; drawing trumps would cost him the slam.

Suppose South draws three trumps. Then he must lose a club and a diamond. What can he do with those losers?

THIRD ROUND

When East ruffed on the third round of clubs, he got only a club that was of no use to South. As the play went, this did not help the defense.

If East failed to ruff, it would be just as bad. South would take the king of clubs and ruff his last club with dummy's ten of hearts.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:

♠ A 9 6 3
♥ 10 6 3
♣ A Q 9

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.

You cannot jump to 2 NT without a stopper in hearts. Bid your suit, such as it is, and await developments.

How can one describe a "lovely" house...?

Please come and see if you agree with many others who tell us,

"THIS IS A LOVELY HOUSE!"

You will be completely surprised to discover how big this house is with 4 bedrooms plus a "mud room" in the bedroom wing . . . two baths and a 6'x12' dressing closet.

The home "wraps around" and shelters a lovely outdoor living area, completely private from the street, overlooked by the kitchen and reached through sliding glass doors from both family room and master bedroom.

(3-BR Model starts at $25,950)

How can one describe a "lovely" house...?

Please come and see if you agree with many others who tell us,

"THIS IS A LOVELY HOUSE!"

The floor plans are unusually convenient and thoughtfully arranged.

Clerestory windows in both ends of the living area provide both light and privacy.

Carpets are included in the price. They're deluxe quality 25 oz. continuous filament with double jute backs on 50 oz. pad.

You will be completely surprised to discover how big this house is with 4 bedrooms plus a "mud room" in the bedroom wing... two baths and a 6'x12' dressing closet.

The home "wraps around" and shelters a lovely outdoor living area, completely private from the street, overlooked by the kitchen and reached through sliding glass doors from both family room and master bedroom.

(3-BR Model starts at $25,950)

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

M. W. writes: "During the holidays I had a strange experience regarding barbiturate poisoning. This was not a case of overdosage—intentional or accidental. I have taken one sleeping pill for 20 years. After my mother's illness, I had so many sleepless nights the doctor said I had forgotten how to sleep.

"Last Christmas Eve I had a couple of weak cocktails, retired about two or three hours later, and took an aspirin because I felt a cold coming on. I collapsed when getting out of bed the next morning. This continued for several days, during which time I had no appetite. What is your opinion? Needless to say, I have not, nor will I ever, take any more capsules."

IT IS DIFFICULT to blame a single drug when so many variables are present. The writer drank cocktails, took an aspirin, and a sedative. This person admitted to being highstrung, staying with a friend, and feeling a cold coming on. Why pick on the barbiturate?

The individual used these capsules for 20 years without adverse reactions. It is true that alcohol may accentuate the action of a sedative, but the dosage of all drugs taken was too small to consider this possibility.

WE MIGHT continue by saying that over the last 20 years this person must have taken this combination on several occasions. The objection to making a diagnosis in a newspaper health column is that we do not have all the facts. These symptoms are not suggestive of aspirin or barbiturate poisoning. A person might collapse and lose appetite as a result of overindulgence, but hangover does not continue for days.

Holidays can be a trying time for emotional persons. This individual may be hiding something.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

BURPING HUSBAND

Mrs. C. writes: My husband is a nervous fellow and belches all the time. Could his nerves be responsible, or is it my meals?

REPLY

Either is a possibility. Your husband may be a victim of gall bladder trouble, indigestion, or another intestinal disorder. This is where your cooking enters the picture. Belching is a habit and also is associated with air swallowing—both manifestations of nervousness.

STOMACH ACID

M. R. writes: What symptoms show too much and too little hydrochloric acid in the system?

REPLY

Indigestion is the most common symptom of both too little and too much. But most individuals are unaware of the acid content of the stomach unless they have peptic ulcer. Now and then morning diarrhea is traced to a hydrochloric acid deficiency.

ARM NUMBNESS

C. P. writes: Recently, upon awakening in the morning, I find my left arm asleep. Could you explain the cause?

REPLY

Pressure on a nerve is the most likely cause. It is reasonable to assume that during the last few weeks you have changed your sleeping posture and are lying on the involved arm or assuming some position that creates pressure.

HIDDEN GOITER

Mrs. L. writes: What is meant by an inward goiter?

REPLY

Diem's Old Hideaway Now On Air Base

By HAL BOYLE

KHAM DUC, Viet Nam (AP) — Men in power often like to have a hideaway from the world where, in a proper setting, they can brood on their greatness.

A site was cleared atop one of the peaks that tower up to 6,000 feet in wild and lonely green beauty. As there are no good roads, everything had to be flown in.

At a cost of $4 million to $5 million, an airstrip was built on a 1,600-foot-high plateau. Construction was begun on the foundations for the palace. Then Diem was killed during a political coup, and his unfinished palace hideaway now stands as a mute memorial to his vanished dream.

On the plateau now is a training camp for civilian irregular defense groups, quasi-soldier volunteers whose job is to protect isolated villages from Viet Cong raids.

"It's pretty much like garrison life anywhere except when we go out on operations against the Viet Cong. But I'll say one thing — these are the most miserable mountains and Godawful jungles anyone on a patrol ever saw."

Davidson could be forgiven a bit of homesickness. He was married only three months ago, and a month later had to leave his bride to come to this isolated outpost in a strange land.

To an outsider these lonely circles of security in an enemy sea seem terribly vulnerable to mass attacks. The airstrips are their only lifeline to the outside world.

Aside from the guerrillas, the mountains and plateaus abound in many forms of wild game, including elephants and tigers.

Terra Linda High School Awards Assembly Slated

The awards assembly at Terra Linda High School will be held at 2 p.m. June 10 in the school amphitheater, and will see at least five students walking off with more than one award each.

Also on the program is a review of events of the school year and reading of the "senior superlatives."

Several awards will not be known until the presentation at the assembly, but from those already announced it appears that Steven Frazzini, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Frazzini of 2150 Elderberry Road, Marinwood, tops the list.

He has choice of scholarships to Stanford, Dartmouth and Yale Universities. He has also reecived the California State Scholarship and the Bank of America award in liberal arts. He was among 11 Terra Linda students winning national merit scholarship letters of commendation.

Andrew La Frenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. La Frenz of 785 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, has won scholarships to Dartmouth and to Williams College and a national merit letter of commendation.

Valedictorian Ken Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Allen of 598 Kernberry Avenue, Marinwood, has been chosen for the Elks Lodge's most valuable student award and will receive a California State Scholarship.

Student body president Bonnie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown of 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, has received the Elks' Youth Leadership Award and the Savings and Loan League "outstanding student" award.

Marsha Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Lang of 2790 Heatherstone Drive, Marinwood, has received the Bank of America fine arts award and the Parent-Teacher Assn. band scholarship.

Debbie Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Adams of 11 Circle Road, Los Ranchitos, has won the Business and Professional Women's club award.

At a cost of $4 million to $5 million, an airstrip was built on a 1,600-foot-high plateau. Construction was begun on the foundations for the palace. Then Diem was killed during a political coup, and his unfinished palace hideaway now stands as a mute memorial to his vanished dream.

On the plateau now is a training camp for civilian irregular defense groups, quasi-soldier volunteers whose job is to protect isolated villages from Viet Cong raids.

"It's pretty much like garrison life anywhere except when we go out on operations against the Viet Cong. But I'll say one thing — these are the most miserable mountains and Godawful jungles anyone on a patrol ever saw."

Davidson could be forgiven a bit of homesickness. He was married only three months ago, and a month later had to leave his bride to come to this isolated outpost in a strange land.

To an outsider these lonely circles of security in an enemy sea seem terribly vulnerable to mass attacks. The airstrips are their only lifeline to the outside world.

Aside from the guerrillas, the mountains and plateaus abound in many forms of wild game, including elephants and tigers.

Terra Linda High School Awards Assembly Slated

The awards assembly at Terra Linda High School will be held at 2 p.m. June 10 in the school amphitheater, and will see at least five students walking off with more than one award each.

Also on the program is a review of events of the school year and reading of the "senior superlatives."

Several awards will not be known until the presentation at the assembly, but from those already announced it appears that Steven Frazzini, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Frazzini of 2150 Elderberry Road, Marinwood, tops the list.

He has choice of scholarships to Stanford, Dartmouth and Yale Universities. He has also reecived the California State Scholarship and the Bank of America award in liberal arts. He was among 11 Terra Linda students winning national merit scholarship letters of commendation.

Andrew La Frenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. La Frenz of 785 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, has won scholarships to Dartmouth and to Williams College and a national merit letter of commendation.

Valedictorian Ken Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Allen of 598 Kernberry Avenue, Marinwood, has been chosen for the Elks Lodge's most valuable student award and will receive a California State Scholarship.

Student body president Bonnie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown of 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, has received the Elks' Youth Leadership Award and the Savings and Loan League "outstanding student" award.

Marsha Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Lang of 2790 Heatherstone Drive, Marinwood, has received the Bank of America fine arts award and the Parent-Teacher Assn. band scholarship.

Debbie Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Adams of 11 Circle Road, Los Ranchitos, has won the Business and Professional Women's club award.

TELEVISION REVIEW

A Man Can't Live By Chop Suey Alone

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — With half-hour television westerns making a slight resurgence, I was thinking recently of that oriental bon vivant, Kam Tong, of "Have Gun, Will Travel"—when who should call up but Kam himself.

Surely you remember Kam. He was that splendidly understated, sly and knowing "Hey-Boy" who could be found almost each week at the San Francisco hotel frequented by Paladin (Richard Boone) when he wasn't off shooting bad guys and talking at them in Shakespeare.

"Have Gun, etc." was, I guess, the best half-hour western that ever was. With Boone, Kam and directing by Andy McLaglen (son of Victor), it had a non-phony collection of principals who seemed — and were — obviously qualified to project the civility they attempted. But Kam wasn't calling about any of this last week.

He wanted me to go see a play, "Rashomon," that he happened to be in. It was being performed by a repertory company called the "East-West Players," which is composed of Oriental actors and actresses—and which is unique even for this town of mushrooming little theaters that provide some decent parts for unknowns who must earn their keep through insipid video roles.

I went to see the show and had a fine time (it would be a unique presentation for any town, though one thinks immediately and especially of San Francisco) — but, in the line of duty, what interested me most was all the television actors I recognized in the cast.

It in an old gag that Oriental performers usually don't have to worry about eating when they are out of work because many of them own restaurants, and this is partly true — Kam and his brother, for instance, have an establishment called Tang's. But man does not live by chop suey alone.

So there on the stage was Kam, as the woodcutter. And if you have been in the audience you too would have recognized a number of the supporting players you have seen on television and in movies. Perhaps, for instance, you remember Kam as Dr. Sen in "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" or as Dr. Li in "Flower Drum Song."

Then there was the impressive lead actor, Mako Yashima, who portrayed the bandit. A Japanese from Kobe, he has studied at the Pratt Institute School of Architecture, and perhaps you recall him in such television shows as "77 Sunset Strip," "Ensign O'Toole," "McHale's Navy," "Arrest and Trial," "The Gallant Men" and "Broadside."

Meg Sought Trip To U.S. For 15 Years

LONDON (UPI)— Princess Margaret has been trying for 15 years to win permission for a trip to the United States. She finally got her wish yesterday and will see America for the first time in November.

A brief announcement from Kensington Palace, where the 34-year-old princess resides with her husband, Lord Snowdon, said the couple would make an official visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Washington and New York. Private stops have not been announced.

The trip, by air, will begin Nov. 4 in the Golden Gate city.

The princess had received many invitations, both private and official, to visit the United States. But her position in Britain and later her publicized and ill - fated romance with group Capt. Peter Townsend, also led the Queen's advisers to ban a trip.

Hub Chamber Backs Bonds

Marin County's $7,750,000 bond issue for the second phase of the Civic Center won unanimous support yesterday of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

The board took the vote after hearing County Administrator Alan Bruce argue the need for the building and explain the costs of other means of financing it.

The board heard a report from the merchants' committee on results of the art show on San Anselmo Avenue. The committee suggested another such show to draw shoppers to the downtown area later this year.

MARIN FILM FARE

Story Of Hunted Man Is Showing

By LES DARD

RAFAEL THEATER

Peck plays an amnesia victim. Worse than that, he's being chased by two vicious men—and encounters various murders while he attempts to save himself and find some clue to his past that might explain his present torture.

Walter Matthau plays a private detective engaged by Peck to help him, but the job proves too much for Matthau.

LARK THEATER

On a beach holiday, a young entomologist seeking lodging is led to a widow's shack in a deep pit in the dunes. In the morning, he finds that the only way in or out — a rope ladder — has vanished.

He is trapped, along with a weird woman.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Alan Bates plays an Englishman who comes to Crete to claim his inheritance. He enlists the paradoxical Zorba to work a mine on his new property.

NOVATO THEATER

"36 Hours" starts Sunday. True to its name, it opens 36 hours before D-Day, when an American intelligence officer is captured by the Germans.

They use every ruse to make him think that the war is over and he was a victim of amnesia, now in an American military hospital.

SEQUOIA THEATER

The controversial comedy, "John Goldfarb, Please Come Home," starts here Sunday.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

For fun, frenzy and pure escapism, now showing is "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," three and one half hours of feverish action with laughter from a veritable who's who of comedians.

PLAYHOUSE TIBURON

Now playing here is the much talked about new film, "Father Goose," in which Cary Grant assumes a whiskyish demeanor, but retains his famous charm.

He plays a coastwatcher for the Allies during World War II. He is on a lonely Pacific island, and his code name is Mother Goose.

Co-featured is "I'd Rather Be Rich."

MOTOR MOVIES

Starting Sunday is a Disney double-feature.

First there's "Those Calloways," the story of a fur trapper who with his wife and teen-age son, ekes out a living in the backwoods of Vermont.

Father and son dream of converting a nearby swamp into a sanctuary for migrating geese. Conflict is supplied by a sharp promoter who tries to convince people the lake should be a hunting resort.

The second feature is "Emil and the Detectives."

101 DRIVE-IN

One of Hollywood's brightest stars is brought to life in the Electronovision production of "Harlow," story of the late Jean Harlow's tempestous, controversial life. It is now on screen.

Playing the title role is Carol Lynley.

The big cast that surrounds the platinum centerpiece includes Ginger Rogers as Harlow's mother, Mama Jean, and Efrem Zimbalist Jr. as the star's one true love. Hurd Hatfield plays her tragic husband, Paul Bern.

LAUGH HIT—Sid Caesar and Edie Adams are man and wife in Stanley Kramer's all-time, star-packed laugh hit, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad World," now showing at the Tamalpais Theater.

TELEVISION REVIEW

A Man Can't Live By Chop Suey Alone

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — With half-hour television westerns making a slight resurgence, I was thinking recently of that oriental bon vivant, Kam Tong, of "Have Gun, Will Travel"—when who should call up but Kam himself.

Surely you remember Kam. He was that splendidly understated, sly and knowing "Hey-Boy" who could be found almost each week at the San Francisco hotel frequented by Paladin (Richard Boone) when he wasn't off shooting bad guys and talking at them in Shakespeare.

"Have Gun, etc." was, I guess, the best half-hour western that ever was. With Boone, Kam and directing by Andy McLaglen (son of Victor), it had a non-phony collection of principals who seemed — and were — obviously qualified to project the civility they attempted. But Kam wasn't calling about any of this last week.

He wanted me to go see a play, "Rashomon," that he happened to be in. It was being performed by a repertory company called the "East-West Players," which is composed of Oriental actors and actresses—and which is unique even for this town of mushrooming little theaters that provide some decent parts for unknowns who must earn their keep through insipid video roles.

I went to see the show and had a fine time (it would be a unique presentation for any town, though one thinks immediately and especially of San Francisco) — but, in the line of duty, what interested me most was all the television actors I recognized in the cast.

It in an old gag that Oriental performers usually don't have to worry about eating when they are out of work because many of them own restaurants, and this is partly true — Kam and his brother, for instance, have an establishment called Tang's. But man does not live by chop suey alone.

So there on the stage was Kam, as the woodcutter. And if you have been in the audience you too would have recognized a number of the supporting players you have seen on television and in movies. Perhaps, for instance, you remember Kam as Dr. Sen in "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" or as Dr. Li in "Flower Drum Song."

Then there was the impressive lead actor, Mako Yashima, who portrayed the bandit. A Japanese from Kobe, he has studied at the Pratt Institute School of Architecture, and perhaps you recall him in such television shows as "77 Sunset Strip," "Ensign O'Toole," "McHale's Navy," "Arrest and Trial," "The Gallant Men" and "Broadside."

MARIN FILM FARE

Story Of Hunted Man Is Showing

By LES DARD

RAFAEL THEATER

Peck plays an amnesia victim. Worse than that, he's being chased by two vicious men—and encounters various murders while he attempts to save himself and find some clue to his past that might explain his present torture.

Jack Weston and George Kennedy play the two menaces on Peck's trail, and Diane Baker is cast as a girl who appears to recognize Peck at the start of the film but just disappears.

Walter Matthau plays a private detective engaged by Peck to help him, but the job proves too much for Matthau.

LARK THEATER

Now playing is the beautiful Japanese allegory, "Woman in the Dunes," a strictly adult story.

On a beach holiday, a young entomologist seeking lodging is led to a widow's shack in a deep pit in the dunes. In the morning, he finds that the only way in or out — a rope ladder — has vanished.

He is trapped, along with a weird woman.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over another big week is the cinematic masterpiece, "Zorba, the Greek," with Anthony Quinn doing a marvelous job in the title role.

Alan Bates plays an Englishman who comes to Crete to claim his inheritance. He enlists the paradoxical Zorba to work a mine on his new property.

NOVATO THEATER

"36 Hours" starts Sunday. True to its name, it opens 36 hours before D-Day, when an American intelligence officer is captured by the Germans.

They use every ruse to make him think that the war is over and he was a victim of amnesia, now in an American military hospital.

James Garner plays the duped officer, Rod Taylor is the German psychologist who devised the clever plan, and Eva Marie Saint plays a nurse who helps Garner in an escape try.

SEQUOIA THEATER

The controversial comedy, "John Goldfarb, Please Come Home," starts here Sunday.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

For fun, frenzy and pure escapism, now showing is "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," three and one half hours of feverish action with laughter from a veritable who's who of comedians.

PLAYHOUSE TIBURON

Now playing here is the much talked about new film, "Father Goose," in which Cary Grant assumes a whiskyish demeanor, but retains his famous charm.

He plays a coastwatcher for the Allies during World War II. He is on a lonely Pacific island, and his code name is Mother Goose.

Co-featured is "I'd Rather Be Rich."

MOTOR MOVIES

Starting Sunday is a Disney double-feature.

First there's "Those Calloways," the story of a fur trapper who with his wife and teen-age son, ekes out a living in the backwoods of Vermont.

Father and son dream of converting a nearby swamp into a sanctuary for migrating geese. Conflict is supplied by a sharp promoter who tries to convince people the lake should be a hunting resort.

The second feature is "Emil and the Detectives."

101 DRIVE-IN

One of Hollywood's brightest stars is brought to life in the Electronovision production of "Harlow," story of the late Jean Harlow's tempestous, controversial life. It is now on screen.

Playing the title role is Carol Lynley.

The big cast that surrounds the platinum centerpiece includes Ginger Rogers as Harlow's mother, Mama Jean, and Efrem Zimbalist Jr. as the star's one true love. Hurd Hatfield plays her tragic husband, Paul Bern.

LAUGH HIT—Sid Caesar and Edie Adams are man and wife in Stanley Kramer's all-time, star-packed laugh hit, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad World," now showing at the Tamalpais Theater.

Meg Sought Trip To U.S. For 15 Years

LONDON (UPI)— Princess Margaret has been trying for 15 years to win permission for a trip to the United States. She finally got her wish yesterday and will see America for the first time in November.

A brief announcement from Kensington Palace, where the 34-year-old princess resides with her husband, Lord Snowdon, said the couple would make an official visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Washington and New York. Private stops have not been announced.

The trip, by air, will begin Nov. 4 in the Golden Gate city.

The princess had received many invitations, both private and official, to visit the United States. But her position in Britain and later her publicized and ill - fated romance with group Capt. Peter Townsend, also led the Queen's advisers to ban a trip.

Hub Chamber Backs Bonds

Marin County's $7,750,000 bond issue for the second phase of the Civic Center won unanimous support yesterday of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

The board took the vote after hearing County Administrator Alan Bruce argue the need for the building and explain the costs of other means of financing it.

The board heard a report from the merchants' committee on results of the art show on San Anselmo Avenue. The committee suggested another such show to draw shoppers to the downtown area later this year.

Culture Series Ends Season In The Red

The Belvedere-Tiburon Cultural Series ended its season $1,548.89 in the red, but backers promise a second season.

The Sunday afternoon programs were sponsored by Reed School District and its parent-teacher club.

Mrs. Dorothy Levitan, retiring president of the parent-teacher club, said another series of programs is planned next year, perhaps with less expensive acts and possibly on weekday evenings.

The deficit may be covered by the district, through its 5-cent community services over-ride tax, by parent club funds on hand, and by donations, Mrs. Levitan said.

The past winter the series presented the Oakland Chamber Orchestra, duo-pianists Peggy and Milton Salkind, Vince Guaraldi Trio with guitarist Bola Sete, a film, "Village Beneath the Sea" with lecture, and the story on film and by lecture on escape from Tibet by the brother of the Dalai Lama.

Expenses totaled $3,300, including $3,000 in fees to performers. Income from ticket sales was $1,789.50.

Britain Tops U. S. Nuclear Generating

WASHINGTON (AP) — Great Britain has more than twice as much nuclear power generating capacity as the United States and has plans to double its capacity by 1968, it was reported yesterday.

Joseph Stephenson, atomic energy attache at the British Embassy, said in an interview Britain has six power plants with a capacity of nearly 2,500 megawatts—million watts—in operation, and expects to add another 2,500 megawatts from additional reactors by 1968.

The United States has nearly 20 power plants in operation, but the largest presently operating has about a 255 megawatt capacity.

The United States now has nuclear power plants with a generating capacity of nearly 1,075 megawatts, but has additional plants totaling another 2,405 megawatts under construction or firmly committed for construction.

San Rafael Ecumenical Event Set

Two noted theologians and clergymen and congregation members from many Marin County Protestant churches will participate in "An Evening of Ecumenism" at St. Raphael's Catholic Church next Friday.

Dr. Robert McAfee Brown and Rev. Frank Norris will present a Protestant-Catholic dialogue highlighting the ecumenical movement which began three years ago with the first community-wide observance of the Christian Unity Octave in San Rafael. The two speakers were to have given their dialogue during the Octave earlier this year, but the program was postponed because of the death of Msgr. Daniel McAlister, administrator of St. Raphael's and a leader in the local ecumenical movement.

Dr. Brown is professor of religion at Stanford University, author of numerous Protesant viewpoint writings, was a Vatican Council observer, and serves on editorial boards of numerous religious publications and of Ramparts magazine.

Reverend Norris also attended Vatican Council sessions. He is professor of dogmatic theology at St. Patrick's Seminary and is a faculty member of the Graduate Theological Union of Berkeley, former Monitor columnist, a director of the National Liturgical Conference, and an author.

The speakers' dialogue will review historical causes of division between Catholic and Protestant churches, explore stumbling blocks to unity, review the ecumenical trends of the past Vatican Councils and discuss goals of the upcoming Vatican III sessions.

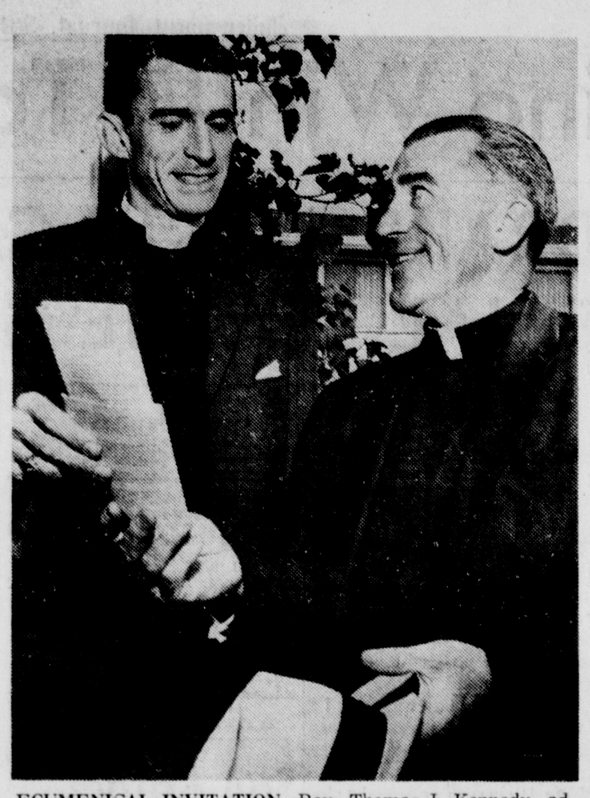
John McCall will be moderator.

The dialogue will be followed with a question and answer session open to the audience.

Rev. John D. Riley, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael will give the invocation; Rev. Thomas I. Kennedy, administrator of St. Raphael's Church will deliver closing remarks, and Rev. Donald H. Baldwin, pastor of First Methodist Church of San Rafael, the benediction.

The unity program will be held in the auditorium of St. Raphael's School; a social hour will follow.

The St. Raphael's Parish Council is coordinating the public meeting; other parish organizations and individuals are assisting. The "Evening of Ecumenism" will seek "the common denominator" for working together by Catholic and Protestant alike, according to Rev. Kennedy.



ECUMENICAL INVITATION—Rev. Thomas I. Kennedy, administrator of St. Raphael's Catholic Parish in San Rafael, extends an invitation to his neighbor, Rev. John D. Riley, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, to join in the public "Evening of Ecumenism" June 4 in St. Raphael School's auditorium. All Marin County ministers and church members have been invited to hear a Protestant-Catholic dialogue and other features of the program.

Marin Choral Tryouts Open For Peace Event

Tryouts have begun for Marin residents who will sing in the 2,000 voice choir at the Convocation of Religion for World Peace June 27 at the Cow Palace, San Francisco.

Rehearsals for the Marin section of the choir, led by Wilbur F. Russell of San Anselmo, will be at 7:30 p.m. June 5 and 19 in Montgomery Chapel of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo. The entire choir will rehearse together the weekend of the convocation.

Novato Church Bid

H. S. Meinberger and Son, San Rafael contractor, has just been announced as a low bidder to build the new All Saints Lutheran Church at San Marin and Novato boulevards, Novato. Estimated cost for the chapel and classroom facilities is $62,355.

Lucas Valley Launches $50,000 Expansion

Barely a year old, the Lucas Valley Community Church already has won the green light for a $50,000 building expansion program.

The American Baptist Convention church has just received loan approvals to expand the chapel, build a thousand square feet of Christian education units, a paved parking lot for 30 autos, and a 2,100 square-feet pastoral residence.

Development of the Lucas Valley Community Church has had far from the ordinary church history, Pastor Dale Nystrom pointed out. The church's site had been purchased, and the chapel and first-stage Christian education unit were completed before the congregation had been formed.

Originating sponsors for the new church weer the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley and First Baptist Church of San Anselmo, Reverend Nystrom explained.

The new education facilities announced today will be dual-purpose. For two and a half hours each weekday morning, the space will be used by the new, private pre-school Creative Nursery for Marin County, directed by Mrs. Janette Parfitt. State officials are overseeing construction of the facilities to meet such a school's requirements, Reverend Nystrom explained.

YWCA Visit Set For Synagogue

Congregation Rodef Sholom, San Rafael, will be the first Marin County sanctuary visited on the Marin Young Women's Christian Assn. new series of "Fellowship of the Faith" tours to begin on June 8.

Participants will be shown the temple, which won architectural honors when completed five years ago, and will meet with Rabbi Morton Hoffman.

The series of Tuesday afternoon tours will be free, but reservations should be made with the YWCA office at 216 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, the day preceding.

CHURCH DEBATE GROWS

Do Clergymen Belong In Picket Lines?

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Only a year or two ago, it was a rare spectacle to find a clergyman toting a picket sign.

Today it's commonplace for ministers, priests and rabbis to participate in protest demonstrations.

Racial justice is most frequently the cause which brings clergymen into the streets. But they also are beginning to use direct action methods to register their views on other issues, ranging from the war in Viet Nam to the location of a new express highway.

This trend is regarded with unqualified horror by conservative church members who believe that a preacher's place is in the pulpit, talking about "religion" in the narrow sense of private piety.

But other Americans—including many who haven't been to church in years — have been heartened to see men of God risking imprisonment or worse to bear witness to their moral convictions. It is probably no exaggeration to say that the willingness of clergymen to put their own bodies on the line in the fight against racial discrimination has done more to rescue religious institutions from the charge of being irrelevant to the real problems of secular society than any development of our time.

When all that has been said, however, a question remains, even in the minds of men of proven devotion to religious social action, as to whether there is not the danger of overdoing a good thing.

"Demonstrations are sometimes necessary to arouse the conscience of a community," said the Rev. Jay Moore, director of community action for the Religion and Race Commission of the National Council of Churches. "But we must not fall into the error of looking upon direct action as the only tool for bringing about social change. There are many other things that need to be done that are perhaps not as exciting as marching in the streets, but which may do more good in the long run."

He cited the "Citizenship Education" project which church and civil rights groups are undertaking in Cleveland, Ohio. Its purpose is to help minority groups understand how they can bring about changes — such as better schools — through the democratic process of voting for trustworthy candidates for public office.

As another example of unspectacular social action which may yield greater long-term dividends than a protest demonstration, the Rev. Mr. Moore pointed to the open occupancy housing campaign of the Detroit Council of Churches. Working quietly with the residents of some 30 residential neighborhoods, church groups are trying to open up all-white suburbs to Negro families who are being uprooted from inner city homes by a new expressway.

Rabbi Richard G. Hirsch, director of the religious action center of reform Judaism, was one of the first clergymen to fly to Selma, Ala., when the Rev. Martin Luther King appealed for help there, emphasized that he was not discounting the value of direct action techniques. But he said:

"Even as we continue to stand on picket lines, we must not confuse demands for change with change itself. Even as we continue to engage in direct action programs outside the framework of religious institutions, we must not lose sight of our primary responsibility, which is to make better human beings of our own adherents."

Presbyterian Building Fund Drive At Goal

The building fund campaign for Novato Presbyterian Church was a success, members of the church's Session decided Sunday night at a special meeting to hear reports of the drive.

As a result, the church officials decided to go ahead immediately with plans to construct a new sanctuary adjoining the two-year-old education building at the church's Wilson Avenue site. The proposal will be presented to trustees of the Redwood Presbytery at its meeting next month.

The congregation, Novato's oldest Protestant church, sold its half-century-old first sanctuary to the new City of Novato a few years ago for civic use. Since then, the congregation has been meeting in the education building at its new site.

An intensive, one-day canvass of members to secure pledges for the new construction was held two weeks ago, after volunteers were trained by Rev. William D. Millen of Caldwell, Ida., expert from the board of national missions of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Missionary Due To Visit Two Churches

James R. Berry, Assemblies of God missionary newly appointed to Sierra Leone, West Africa, will be guest speaker tomorrow at both the Northern and Southern Marin Assemblies of God.

His first appearance will be at the Southern Marin Assembly, East Blythedale and Sycamore Avenues, Mill Valley, for the 11 a.m. service. At p.m., he will speak in the Northern Marin Assembly, 1370 South Novato Boulevard.

Both Reverend Berry and his wife are graduates of Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz; they have served in pastoral ministry for the California-Nevada district since graduation in 1960. They have two young sons who will acompany them to Africa.

'OPERATION OUTREACH'

A highlight of last Sunday's concluding day of the American Baptist Convention in San Francisco was "Operation Outreach," in which hundreds of convention delegates teamed up with members of Bay Area Baptist churches to visit homes and distribute Baptist literature. In Corte Madera, the event also became a reunion. Rev. Henry Fox, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Corte Madera, found himself instructing convention delegates Rev. Irving A. Fox of Napa and Mrs. Charles D. Chapman of Dover Plains, N.Y. The Corte Madera Fox, a pastor for 14 years, is the son of the Napa Fox, a clergyman for half a century. The trio visited homes in Marin Estates, Mariner Cove and Vista Del Bahia.

Marin Native To Be Ordained By Archbishop

Louis Joseph Robollo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robello of 20 Bungalow Avenue, San Rafael, will be ordtained to the priesthood by Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken next Saturday, in ceremonies at Mission Dolores Basilica, San Francisco.

The following day, June 6, he will offer his first Mass in St. Rafael's Church, San Rafael, and will be the guest of honor at a parish-wide public reception in the St. Raphael's School auditorium, according to Rev. Thomas I. Kennedy, parish administrator.

Reverend Robello, 34, was graduated from St. Raphael's School in 1954, then attended Sacret Heart High in San Francisco, and the University of San Francisco. He later studied in seminaries in Richmond (Contra Costa County), Missouri and Canada.

Choir Alumni Reunion Set Tomorrow

Anthem singers will renew old acquaintances tomorrow, when the Chancel Choir of the First Congregational Church of San Rafael holds an unusual reunion.

During the morning, the choir's alumni will rehearse two anthems, and then join with the active members in singing for the worship service beginning at 10:15 a.m. Following the service, the alumni will be guests of the present choir at a potluck luncheon.
